Old super-type comic book heroes never die . . . they just fade away. So while they're fading, here's a few modern replacements.

MAD'S XMAS TOYS 4

Once they're put on sale, young people everywhere will demand our new toys, and old people everywhere will demand our arrest.

STRANGELY BELIEVE IT 13, 30, 34

Once again, Ernie Kovacs offers his collection of absurdities to MAD, the circulation of which is the biggest absurdity yet.

REPORT TO RUSSIA16

You know those terrible pictures we get to see of people in Russia. Here's terrible pictures they get to see of people in U.S.

AMBIGUOUS SIGNS, INC. 20

When Bob and Ray find we published their exposé of the petroleum industry's secret plot to sell more gas, they might take it.

When fun-lovers discover these new games, the dice will roll. But when bluenoses discover these new games, the heads will roll.

With millions of tweeters and woofers vibrating all through the U.S., the one solution left is: If you can't beat 'em, join 'em!

ORSON BEAN'S CIVIL WAR 42

This account of the Civil War, as fought by Orson Bean's illustrious family, will no doubt start that conflict all over again.

Comic Book Publishers! Stop looking for ideas in your rival's comic books and pay attention! This article is for you! Here, for free, is the answer to all your problems:

MAD's plan to revive the Comic Book Industry. Ten years ago, all our friends were reading about "Super Heroes." But now, they seem to have lost interest. And the reason,

FRONT COVER

Who did you guys have for a Math teacher? The hand on the cover of MAD #36 has six fingers!

Dean Scott Hershey, Pa.

Six Fingers!

Don't you guys ever look at your hands? The hand on the cover of the Dec. issue has six fingers!

Bob Thompson Philadelphia, Pa.

Doesn't everybody's?-Ed.

Concerning the cover of the Dec. issue, since when does a hand have six fingers? Don't you know all hands have four fingers!

Walt Disney (Stamford, Conn.)

MORRIS PHILIP

After reading MAD #36, I rushed to the corner for a pack of Morris Philip. As suggested in your ad, I put one in my mouth and waited for the shock of my life. HOO BOY! What a shock! Some clod had already lit it, and I was sucking on the hot end!

> Pete Hech Chestertown, Md.

WHA . . .?

The guy who writes your "The-guywho-writes-your-letters-should-write-therest-of-the-magazine" letters . . . should write the rest of the magazine!

Ellis Lesack Philadelphia, Pa.

LETTERS DEPT.

CORNY ISLAND

You could have knocked me over with a MAD Key Chain when I cut out your "Mad Visits Corny Island" and found the pieces actually fit together and made a picture! You guys sick or something?

> David Ames Hampton, N. J.

O.K.! GUNFIGHT . . .

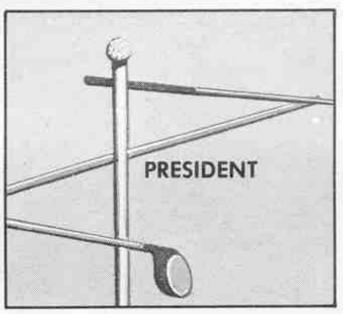

We think your article, "O.K! Gunfight At The Corral!" was the most sickening, stomach-turning, rotten piece of writing we have ever read.

> Burt Lancaster Kirk Douglas (Ann Arbor, Mich.)

TV ANTENNAS

In "Personalized TV Antennas," you show the President's antenna with lefthanded golf clubs, and the President is right handed.

Richard Skibski Chicago, Ill.

Left-Handed Models!

What gives? You have the President's golf clubs as left-handed models. Don't you realize Eisenhower is a rightie!?! Clods!! And don't give me the excuse that the President referred to is the President of Lower Slobovia!

Larry Skarin Brooklyn, N. Y.

We wouldn't try such a lame excuse! Actually, President referred to is President of Upper Slobovial—Ed.

THEY'RE GOING

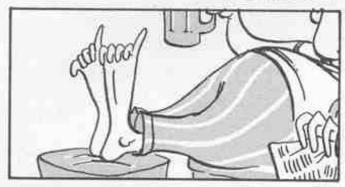

Yes, jet planes are going fast these days! And "WHAT—ME WORRY?" kid reproductions, suitable for framing and for gift-wrapping fish are still available! (Had you worried for a minute, hah?) Send 25¢ to: Dept. "What—Color?", c/o MAD, Room 706, 225 Lafayette St., New York 12, N.Y.

THE CHILDREN'S HOUR

In "The Children's Hour," in the first picture, the guy's got two right feet! Watch yourself!

> Jim Billington Portland, Ore.

Two Right Feet!

In the first picture, the man's left big toe is on the wrong foot! Who goofed? Billy Stebbins Miami, Fla.

His mother!-Ed.

THE TWELVE BOTTLES

How drunk can you be? In "The Twelve Bottles," you have 500 proof written on the first label. Don't you know 100 proof is the most it can be?

> Jack Selcovitz Philadelphia, Pa.

Don't you know 200 proof is most it can be?—Ed.

Mr. Morgan left out the punch line: "I am not under the affluence of incohol as some thinkle peep I am!"

Gerald Joss Philadelphia, Pa.

RAW GUTS

Old Fenwick Furd is lucky he hasn't run into any old lions lately. The old boy would have a hard time shooting them when his trusty old rifle hasn't got a trigger on it!

> Perry A. Lerner Fontana, Calif.

No Trigger!

No wonder poor Fenwick hasn't killed any old lions lately, with the gun you clods gave him. It hasn't any trigger!

> John Olson Napa, Calif.

Fenwick's gun-trigger is quite apparent to us. Perhaps fact that he covers it with lucky lion tail fooled you!—Ed.

THE DUEL

Could you please tell me how the duelists in "Scenes We'd Like To See-The Duel" managed to get off two shots each from what any fool can see are one-shot dueling pistols?

Michael Devlin New Orleans, La.

It wasn't easy!—Ed.

TV MOVIES

In "TV Movies," the gangster named "Lefty" is filing his nails with his right hand. What's with you guys?

> Dale Goble Grass Valley, Calif.

Lefty!

Wally Wood had the stupidity to draw "Lefty" in "The Gangster Movie" filing his nails right-handed. I suggest he be relieved of his duties.

> Bill Priestly University, Ala.

Wally wants a better suggestion. How else can "Lefty" file nails on left hand?—Ed.

BACK COVER

The barber who trimmed Alfred E. Neuman's hair for your "What, Me Worry?" Holloween mask must've been blind! He took a little too much off the top!

Leon Harvey Old Westbury, N. Y.

You were right! I wore my Halloween mask in September, and my friends were hysterical! Now, I'm hysterical...trying to get it unpasted from my face.

James Jakubowski Baltimore, Md.

I followed your instructions for tying on your Halloween mask, including the string from my own ears down around my toes. All went well until I stood up. The string I'd used was too short! Somebody, get me down from here!!

We at MAD believe that, as long as they bring bad news, rejection slips should at least make interesting reading, and should at least sound like the magazine that sends them out. RED CARPET DEPT.

Ivan Slobotnavitch, Ace Moscow news correspondent, was recently assigned to photograph and report on the shocking conditions prevalent in this decadent capitalistic country of ours. He arrived here armed with camera, film, pad, and pencil (red), and went straight to work. Fortunately, MAD was able to intercept the dispatch Ivan sent back to Pravda. Here, then, is the United States as seen through red-tinted glasses in Ivan's . . .

REPOST

"Here is proof that all Americans are warmongers. Even children are armed. For practice, they kill each other!"

"Lynchings are common. Most businesses shut down for the occasion. Not only are the Americans bloodthirsty, they are also illiterate. They can't even spell 'lynch'!"

"With mine own eyes, I have seen long breadlines in the United States!"

TO AUSSIA

PICTURES BY WALLACE WOOD

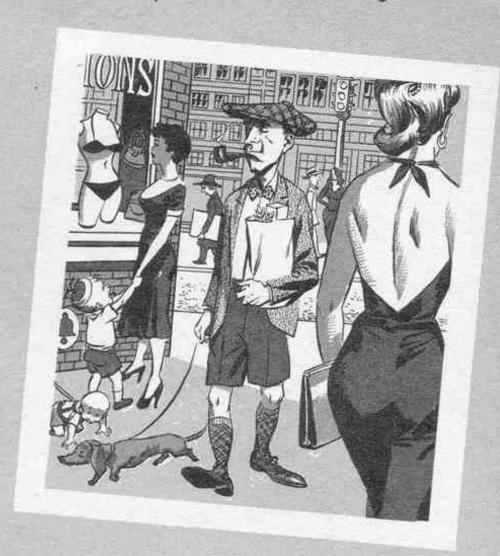

"Daily, screaming U.S. slave laborers are forced into steel boxcars by uniformed Fascistic guards!"

"U.S. automobiles are poorly made. I have seen the tops of some come off by the mere touch of a finger."

"Clothing is scarce in the United States. Many garments are put on the market only partly completed."

"Most Americans are starving. Newspapers and magazines publish lists of the meager foods the people are permitted to eat!"

"In fact, hunger is so prevalent here, people have taken to eating domestic animals!"

"Lighting facilities in the U.S. are primitive. I have seen Americans reading by the light of 150-year-old kerosene oil lamps!"

"Other, more impoverished people have to be content to eat their meager meals by candlelight!"

I have seen an entire theatre illuminated by only one candelabra!

"Here is proof that Capitalistic bankers bleed the people dry!"

"Americans are so regimented, they are permitted to display their emotions only at given signals!"

"Children are forcefully separated from parents at an early age, and sent off to labor camps!"

"U.S. housewives are forced to operate machines in their own homes!"

"Sanitation facilities are a disgrace. Americans must dump their trash out of windows into streets!"

BOB & RAY DEPT.

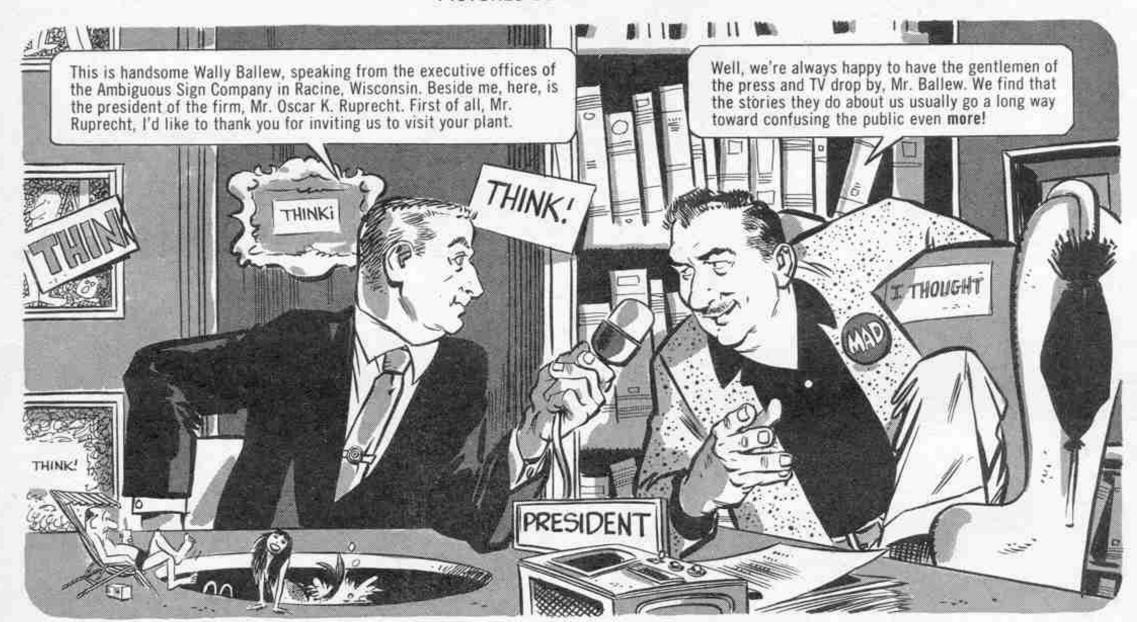

We interrupt this magazine to bring you a special article! We've just gotten word that Bob and Ray's roving correspondent, Wally Ballew, is standing by at a street and highway sign company in Racine, Wisconsin. So if you're ready, come in please, Wally Ballew, with your report on

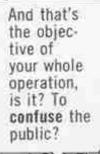

PAY

AMBIGUOUS SIGNS INC.

PICTURES BY MORT DRUCKER

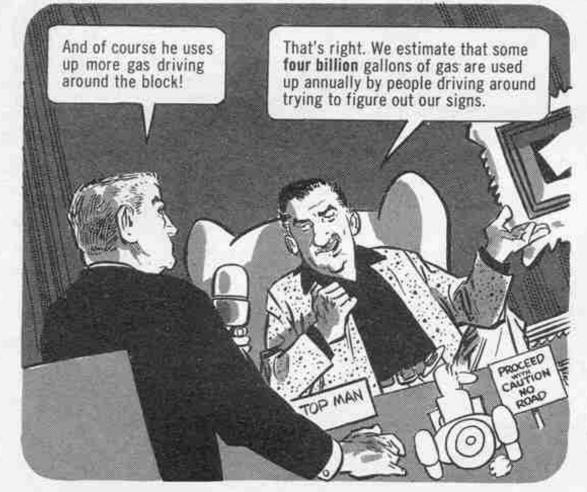

Yes, we don't make any secret of that fact. We are retained by an association of gasoline manufacturers to create street and highway signs that are completely ambiguous. The theory is that if people don't understand signs, they'll drive around aimlessly and use up more gas. For example, I have the final draft of a sign right here that's going into production next week . . .

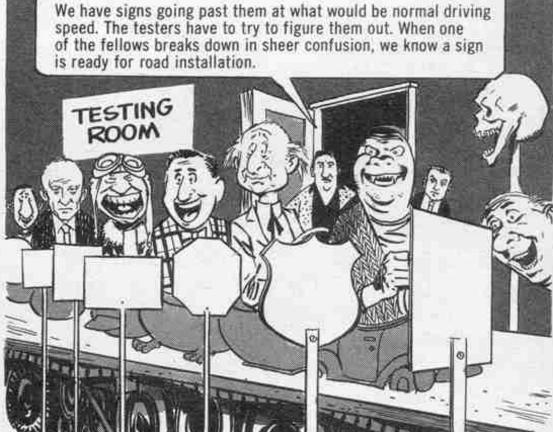

Let's see . . . "No left turn not on green arrow except 4 PM to 6 PM." What in the world does that mean, Mr. Ruprecht? Well, the point is that it actually doesn't mean anything! But your average motorist wanting to make a left turn will go around the block to get a second look at it in the mistaken belief that he can figure it out.

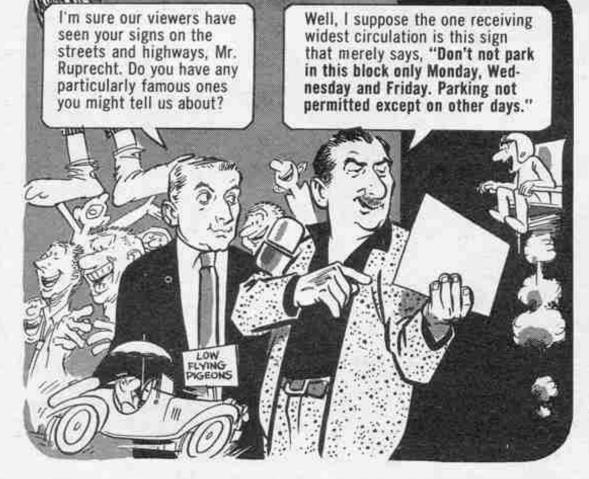

I see that most of your signs employ the double negative to confuse the motorist. That's right. Of course, another satisfactory type is what we call our "busy work" signs. They just give the driver so much to do, he can't pay attention to where he's going.

CHARACTERS THAT GROW ON YOU DEPT.

While we were on our vacation last summer, we took a wrong turn somewhere and ended up in the town of Public Domain, Pa. (due North of Author-Author, Md.). Much to our surprise, we discovered that Public Domain is the place where most story book characters come and settle down to lead normal lives. What intrigued us the most was the business careers these past literary heroes had chosen for themselves once they'd grown up. So, if you'd like to know what your favorite childhood fiction-chums are doing for a living these days, you can . . .

HOW TO WAGE PEACE

STORY AND PICTURES BY DAVID BERG

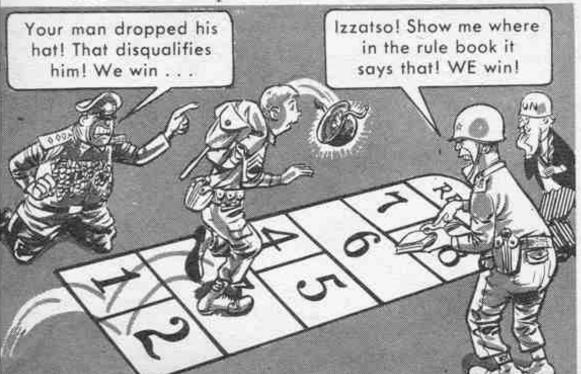

Now you've got the general idea. We figure that as long as men must fight, let them fight in a harmless way . . . a sort of "peaceful war". Since armies consist of people, they could use the people's games, with the U.N. acting as judge and scorekeeper. Then, to the victors would go the spoils, and nobody gets hurt . . . much. F'rinstance . . .

And now, the games of our "peaceful war" are coming to a close. On the Hop-Scotch match rests the entire outcome.

If you own a Hi-Fi set, you're a lucky individual. If it works, you're even luckier. Because a Hi-Fi set can turn your living room into a veritable Carnegie Hall. It's even better than the real Carnegie Hall because you're never bothered by late-comers, coughers, programrustlers, and that $4.80 admission charge. What you are bothered by is hum, distortion, surface noise, and that screaming neighbor. In any case, it looks like Hi-Fi is here to stay, and who are we to fight a trend. So, neighbor, get out your ear-plugs, because in this article

MAD GOES

A GLOSSARY OF HI-FI TERMS

(So you'll know what we're talking about. We don't!)

HIGH FIDELITY—Full, faithful reproduction of recorded sound.

LOW FIDELITY-Porfirio Rubirosa

LOUDSPEAKER-Person who talks while Hi-Fi set is on.

WOOFER-Dog who talks while Hi-Fi set is on.

TWEETER—A shade stronger than tweet.

TUNER-A salt water fish.

BASS—See TUNER

TREBLE—"Elbert" spelled backwards, honoring Elbert J. Stylus, only man to be trapped on a revolving 78 rpm turntable for 24 hours and live.

AMPLIFIER—What you make to burn an ampli.

OHM—Where Hi-Fi fan sets up equipment.

PICKUP-Someone to listen to Hi-Fi records with.

WOW-Listening to Hi-Fi records with loose pickup.

FLUTTER—Reaction during Wow.

RESISTOR-What you should do with loose pickup.

AM-Midnight to Noon.

FM—Initials of Felix Mulvaney, first man to faithfully record the belch of an owl.

DIAMOND NEEDLE—What Hi-Fi guy gets from impatient, marriage-minded girlfriend.

PITCH-What you get from Hi-Fi salesman.

DISTORTION-Happens when you leave Hi-Fi records on radiator.

EAR-CONDITIONING IS ESSENTIAL FOR ENJOYING HIGH FIDELITY SOUNDS

Good Hi-Fi equipment is capable of reproducing sounds between 20 and 40,000 cycles. Unfortunately, the human ear is only capable of hearing sounds to about 15,000 cycles. However, dogs can hear sounds between 15,000 and 40,000 cycles! Pictures below taken over several months show Hi-Fi fan becoming conditioned to Hi-Fi sounds . . .

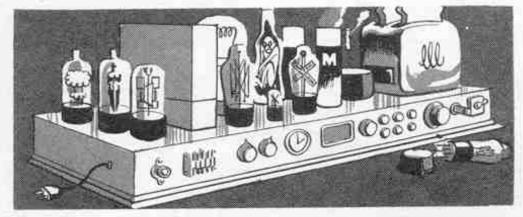

HOW TO ASSEMBL

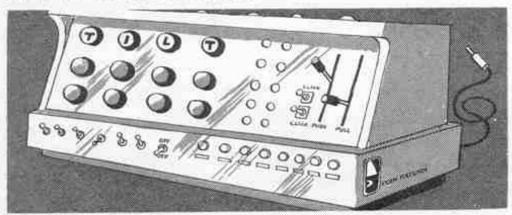

THE OLD EXPENSIVE WAY

STEP 1: YOUR AMPLIFIER . . .

Rush out and buy shock-proof, water-proof, anti-magnetic, self-winding, sanforized, cork-tipped, micronite-filtered, "Howling Banshee" 20 Watt Basic Amplifier. Cost: $250.00

STEP 3: YOUR TUNER . . .

Then order 15-tube, 12-dial, 10-button, 7-switch, 4-light, push-pull, click-click, cross-country, high-strung, over-priced, laminated, "Caramba" AM-FM Tuner. Cost: $150.00

STEP 5: YOUR REWIRING ...

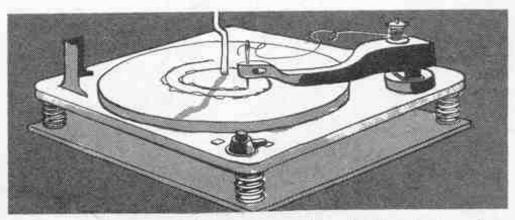

Next step is to rewire your house so you can use all that new Hi-Fi equipment. Cost of rewiring house: $1500.00

STEP 7: YOUR POWER PLANT ...

Finally, you have to construct new power plant to produce enough current now needed for house. Cost: $2,000,000

STEP 2: YOUR TURNTABLE . . .

Next, purchase ever-floating, sand-packed, velvet spring, non-neurotic, pre-tranquilized, "Whirling Dervish" X-95, 7-Speed, 4-Shift, 250 Horsepower Turntable. Cost: $125.00

STEP 4: YOUR LOUDSPEAKER . . .

Now shop for birch-faced, six-ply, magic-margin, forwardlook, "Little Corporal" Speaker. Cost (including Woofer, Tweeter, Screamer, Shrieker, and Ear-Splitter): $450.00

STEP 6: YOUR HIGH-VOLTAGE LINES ...

Now you have to erect new high-voltage lines from power plant to carry current needed for house. Cost: $20,000

STEP 8: YOUR HEADACHE . . .

Now you can sit back, listen to Hi-Fi music, and figure out how you're gonna pay for set. Total Cost: $2,022,475

E YOUR HI-FI SET

THE ECONOMICAL MAD WAY

STEP 1: YOUR AMPLIFIER (AND NEEDLE) ..

Scour nearby alleys for mongrel dog with one buck tooth.

Plug tail into wall-socket. Output will be surprising! And buck tooth will make fine needle!

Cost: Nothing!

STEP 2: YOUR TURNTABLE . .

Steal old Lazy Susan Serving-Tray from Dining Room, remove dishes, cover by gluing down sister's old felt skirt, and drive a ten-penny-nail in the center. Cost: Nothing.

STEP 3: YOUR TURNTABLE MOTOR ...

Connect turntable to "endless belt" with rope. As howling dog scampers over belt, turntable will revolve. Harness dog's tooth to play LP's. Cost of "endless belt": $2.00

STEP 4: YOUR LOUDSPEAKER ...

Mother-in-law makes dandy loudspeaker, as you well know. Merely connect her up to the mongrel dog. Between them, you'll get all the high and low sounds. Cost: Nothing!

STEP 5: YOUR CABINET ...

Old barrel found in vacant lot serves as fine cabinet for your Hi-Fi set's components. Cost of barrel: Nothing!

STEP 6: YOUR GOOD FORTUNE . . .

MAD Hi-Fi set is now finished. You've saved money, and also gotten rid of your Mother-in-law. Total Cost: $2.00

DISGUISE HI-FI EQUIPMENT TO BLEND INTO DECOR FOR BETTER RESULTS

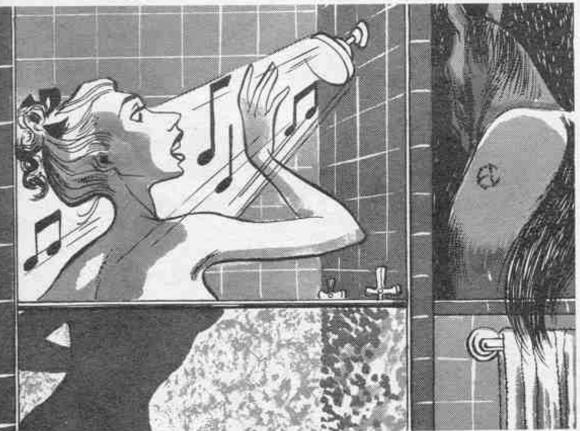

This can be done in various ways. One method is to hide your Hi-Fi components inside various pieces of furniture.

Another method is to hide speakers through house. This will captivate your friends and family wherever they are.

Your week-end guest will certainly get a big kick out of listening to Hi-Fi music while trying to take a shower.

But mainly, disguise your Hi-Fi set's component parts so your neighbors will have a hard time finding them when

Your daughter and her fiance will surely appreciate the sound of romantic Hi-Fi music while necking in the den.

MAD Reviews New Hi-Fi Recordings

Glass and Steel

FAMOUS AUTOMOBILE CRASHES: Vol. 1. Sounds of the most spectacular automobile crashes of the past 10 years. Pleasure Time Records, XM-95 MPH, $4.98

THE LATE Heinrich Baffle, who collected the material for this recording, was a High Fidelity perfectionist to the end. At the time of his death, caused by being caught in the middle of a head-on collision on the Lincoln Highway, Baffle was engaged in the preparation of Volume 2 of this fine series.

Of the 24 crashes recorded here, one that especially lends itself to re-hearing is a 9-car bumper-to-bumper mishap taped on the icy Merritt Parkway during a sleet storm. The lows of steel meeting steel provide a startling contrast to the highs of the motorists' screams.

Most spectacular of all the sounds on this record is the band labeled "Flying Fragments". For this one, Baffle stationed himself in the rock-strewn riverbed, 500 feet below notorious "Hairpin Turn" just outside East Gap, Colorado. Nothing is missing here. The high-cycled sounds of shattering glass, the middle-range shock waves of chrome and metal hitting stone, and the unbelievable low-cycled explosion when the fire reaches the gas tank . . . are all faithfully recorded in a technically perfect masterpiece.

Here indeed, is a High-Fidelity record designed for many hours of pleasant Hi-Fi listening.

Sounds of Life

HICCUPS, BELCHES, SNEEZES, AND COUGHS. Edited by Dr. Bascomb Sneed. Mucus Records, 2-12" disks, #5007-9, $5.98 part . . . although several of the belches suffer from distortion. The record jacket boasts that the sneezes (performed by actual hospital patients in wards) are so lifelike, they laid up six audio engineers with bad colds and virus during the recording sessions.

Something New in Beethoven

BEETHOVEN: Symphony No. 3 (The Eroica) with Kyle Linseed playing the solo kazoo. Longhair Records, 5-J-322, $3.98

HEARING BEETHOVEN rendered on the solo kazoo makes us wonder if the composer really didn't have this instrument in mind when he wrote his masterpiece. As performed by Mr. Linseed, the symphony reaches new heights in intensity and power, especially during the finale. At that point, Mr. Linseed, who is the only kazoo player in the world with a forked tongue, nearly shatters the speaker with his magnificent crescendo. The disintegration of his wax paper ends the record in a High-Fidelity coup.

Violence in Nature

BATTLE OF THE ANTS: Sounds of Nature Series, Vol. 3. Biology Records, MM-53620456794567-J, $5.98

lived in an anthill for seven months, waiting for his chance. "Battle of the Ants" is a thrilling, step-by-step narrative in High-Fidelity sound of a bloody war between two ant armies over a lousy marshmallow. Purge's technical genius has managed to capture all of the marvelous sounds of the conflict . . . the insects' call to battle, the shouts of hand-to-hand combat, the cries of victory, and Purge's own screams when his right forearm is used as a minefield.

For devotees of wildlife sounds, this record set will make a worthy addition to your Hi-Fi library. Also recommended are the other offerings in the Sounds of Nature Series: "Mating Calls of the Seven Year Locusts", and "The Birth of a Water Beetle".

Eloquent Elbows

SCHNOOK: Concerto for Kettledrum and Triangle. Mischa Goss, soloist. J. Hmphlrich, conducting. Kaput Records, C105, $4.98

NO ONE knows very much about Friedrich Schnook (170?-1?), the German composer who died at the age of seven. We do know that what might have been an impressive career was tragically cut short when the young genius accidentally strangled in the strings of his harp. In any case, his concerto for Kettledrum and Triangle, written when Schnook was six, is a minor masterpiece.

Fortunately for all Schnook lovers, there are 16 versions of this concerto now on records. This latest offering is by far the most impressive, and certainly the most complete. Wisely, the performers have not omitted Schnook's famous, but rarely played Elbow Variation in the third movement. This consists of the soloist striking his kettledrums for 15 minutes with his right elbow, and 10 minutes with his left.

This variation will be of particular interest to High Fidelity fans, as the soloist in this performance misses the kettledrum during the 17th minute, and knocks over the podium.

IS IT POSSIBLE?

Dear Hi-Fi Editor,

Is it possible for a printed circuit 40-watt amplifier with an output impedence of 8 ohms and a 70db hum below 35 watts to be connected to a 900 to 20,000 cps 15-omh tweeter with 120° horizontal dispersion and a crossover network of 200 cps when my tuner contains a 3-gang variable condenser, a built-in 20KC whistle filter and three assorted microvolts?

Lance La Touche Dallas, Texas

It might be fun to try.-Ed.

WRONG WAY?

Dear Hi-Fi Editor,

My turntable persists in revolving in the wrong direction. I cannot listen to my favorite music. What should I do?

> Belinda Matrix, Portland, Ore.

Let the darned thing revolve any way it wants. No true Hi-Fi fan cares about music. It's the sound that's important!

-Ed.

GURGLING SOUND?

Dear Hi-Fi Editor,

I am puzzled. In Erich Blintze's recording of Brahms 1st Symphony, there is a strangle gurgling sound to the trumpets. Is this my set or the recording?

Vladimir Cabot,

Boston, Mass:

It's not your set. This is an example of the new "Seashore Techniques" of Hi-Fi recording where the strings, woodwinds, and percussions play on the beach, and the brass records underwater.—Ed.

TONE-ARM JUMPS?

Dear Hi-Fi Editor,

Whenever I play a certain LP, my tone-arm jumps. Yesterday, it jumped 12 grooves. Is this the record?

Axel O'Toole, Flagstaff, Ariz.

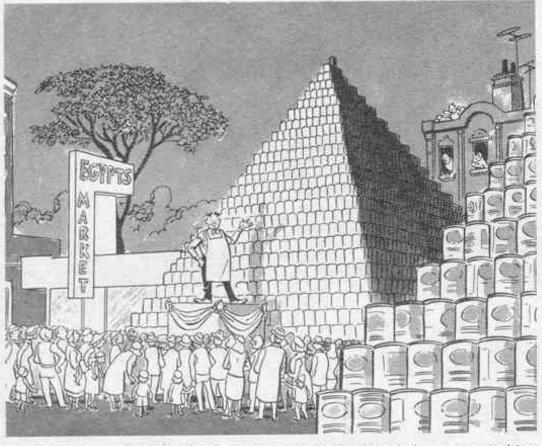

No. the record for groove jumping is held by a Dauntless H-13-J tone-arm. On December 4, 1956, it jumped 37 grooves on a record played by Clyde Pincus of Yonkers, N. Y. Sorry.—Ed.

THE PYRAMIDS OF EGYPT

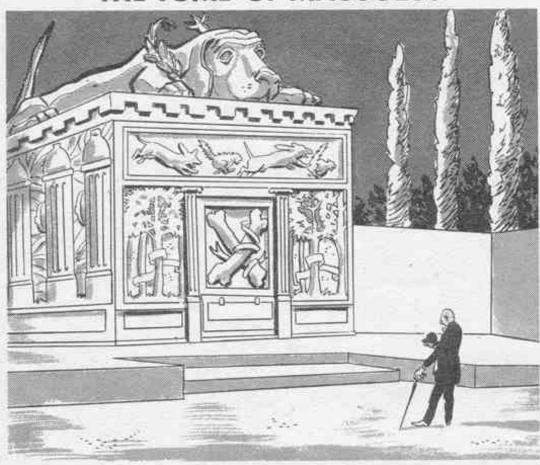

To sell more soup, Lemuel T. Egypt, a grocer in Kokomo, Ind., constructed two huge pyramids, each containing 77,890 cans of Campbell's Soup with no layer having more than two cans of the same variety. Grocers from all over West-Central Indiana flocked to Kokomo to admire the pyramids, until, one day, a determined woman demanded a can of Concentrated Chicken Gumbo. The resultant catastrophe accounted for 27 lives, including Egypt, 3 vegetable assorters, four meat men, and the Midwest correspondent for Time.

THE HANGING GARDENS OF BABYLON

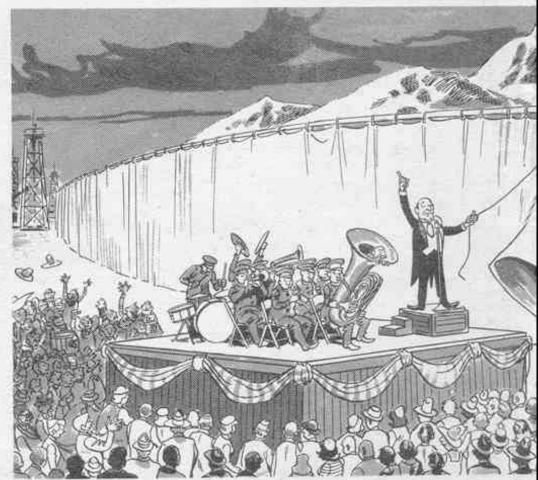

Eric Lanyard, a bitter hermit living in Babylon, Long Island, so despised his neighbors that he decided to conceal his house by means of a hanging garden. He sowed his roof with seeds of the fast-growing African Ivy plant. When Lanyard awoke the next morning, he found himself a prisoner, cut off from the outside world by dense vines. Eventually, Lanyard died of starvation, and before the vines could be destroyed, they hanged 2300 townspeople.

THE TOMB OF MAUSOLUS

Ardsley Swill, a Cleveland dog fancier, spent thirty-one years planning and building a tomb for his pet dachshund, Mausolus. The magnificent air-conditioned structure contained one-hundred and seven separate vaults, each with its own hydrant. The floors were paved with bones, and oil portraits of Mausolus hung on every wall. On the eve of the tomb's dedication, however, Mausolus eloped with a dalmation and hasn't been heard of since.

THE COLOSSUS

Renfrew "Make-A-Million" Rhodes, retired Fort Worth oilman, hated the sight of the flat Texas plains and decided to build his own mountain which he would call "The Colossus of Rhodes". He chose as the site of his peak an area covered by a large mound of dirt already dug up by a colony of moles. Rhodes' friends laughed at him, shouting,

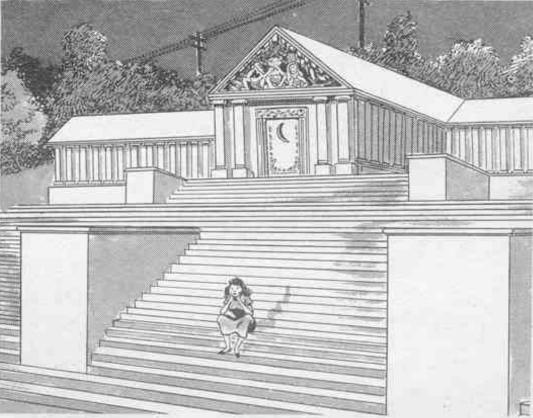

The Seven Blunders Of The World

THE STATUE OF ZEUS

Lancelot O. Zeus, president of the Zeus Bath Soap Company, was a fanatic believer in cleanliness. Every day, he took 12 showers and 3 baths, and even started a campaign to have the word "dirt" banned from the dictionary. As a personal tribute to cleanliness, Mr. Zeus erected a statue of himself, entirely out of soap on the wide lawn of his bay front mansion in San Francisco. He'd just finished putting in place the final, 184,000th bar of soap, when a violent thunder storm struck. The result produced an onslaught of suds which clogged the engines of 19 freighters, capsized 300 fishing boats, and paralyzed shipping in ports as far away as Yokohama and Oakland.

THE TEMPLE OF DIANA

Spumoni heiress, Diana Dregs, had one great ambition in life, and that was to have her own temple on the grounds of her estate in Boston. While touring Europe, she discovered the marble fragments of what experts claimed to have been a great Grecian temple. It took Miss Dregs 23 years to pick up each of the 89,374 pieces of marble and have them shipped back to Boston. She then spent the next 17 years putting the pieces together. When the tremendous task was completed, she found that instead of a temple, she had reconstructed the largest ancient Grecian marble outhouse known to man.

OF RHODES

"Men can't make mountains out of molehills!" But Rhodes went ahead, eventually creating the world's highest mountain (31,371 feet). The moles, however, objected to all this and speedily dug a 32,000 foot crater which swallowed up Rhodes' mountain, Rhodes, and 72,890 spectators, thereby proving "Moles can make manholes out of mountains!"

THE LIGHTHOUSE OF ALEXANDRIA

It took Otis Bailiwick of Alexandria, Virginia, 54 years to build his full-sized lighthouse made entirely out of matches. One night after he'd moved in, while having a cigarette, Otis absent-mindedly flicked a live ash to the floor. The blunder not only leveled his life's work, but the resultant glare attracted over twenty-seven million moths from nearby states, so that two dozen large woolen mills in the immediate vicinity were completely wiped out.

ORSON BEAN DEPT.

Recently, there has been a great revival of interest in the Civil War. We're sure you are all familiar with this renowned conflict which was fought, if not to free the slaves, at least to make them inexpensive. Over at one of the television networks, a major spectacular is planned on the Civil War. They're just waiting to see how it ends! The reason this war is of great interest to Mr. Bean is that his family played a vital role in it. So here, then, is . . .

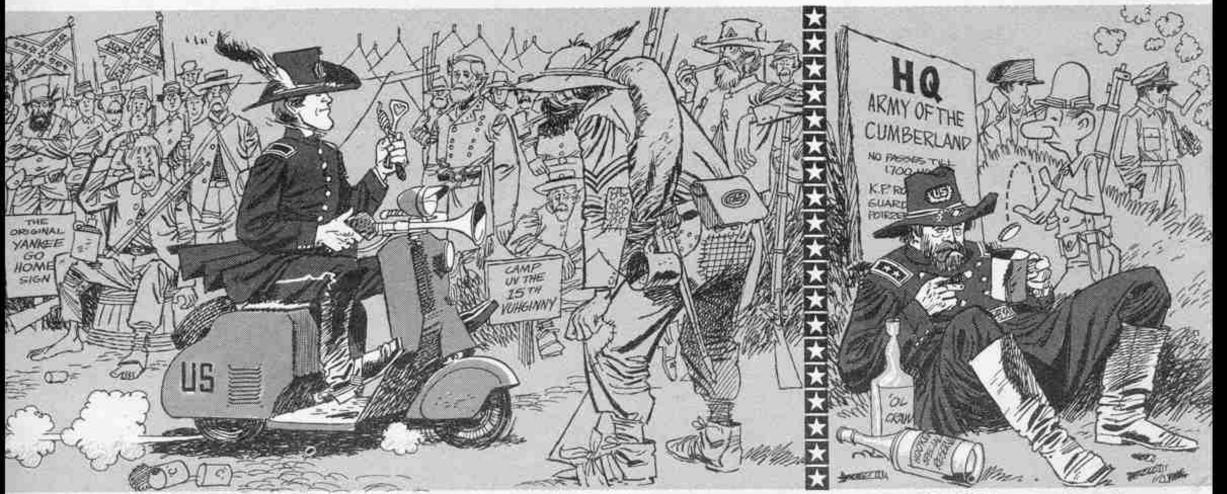

Great Grandfather, Cornelius Bean, for example, was very big in the war between the states. He fought against Maine. For the North, but against Maine!

Great Uncle Zachary was also in the Civil War, and left a personal history of those exciting days. My Great Uncle's diary is of little-known history, but then he was a little known man. My Great Aunt hardly knew him!

PICTURES BY GEORGE WOODBRIDGE

But General Grant, too, was known as a man prone to take a nip. And Zachary tells much about him. There was the day in '62 when Grant was cut off at the battle of Gerson's Gap. Zachary was forced to make his way through three miles of Confederate encampment to bring back the General's desperately needed field instruments . . . a corkscrew and a bottle opener.

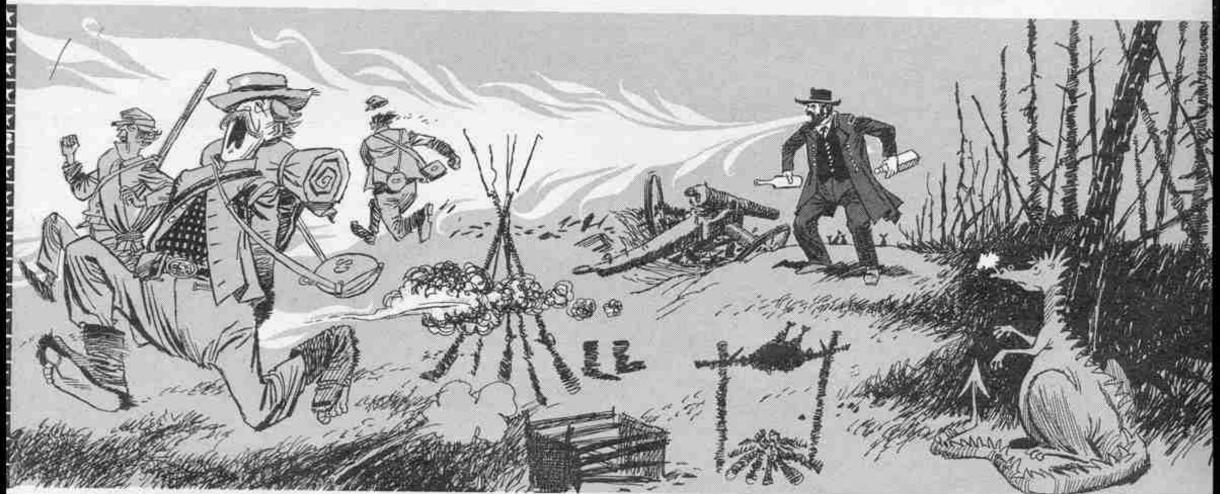

He also brought back the General's tin cup . . . which was doubly appropriate, because after three snorts, Grant was usually blind.

ORSON BEAN'S

Zachary Bean was the most decorated officer in the Union Army. He was the Herman Goering of the North. Although he was personal aide-de-camp to General Grant, to Zachary Bean, nothing came easy. He won most of his medals the hard way . . . from Grant, at dice.

Zachary's diary gives a great deal of information about some of the wellknown figures of the day. It's a sort of Civil War Confidential. For example, we've all read that General Stonewall Jackson was called "Stonewall" because he always stood his ground. Not true! According to Zachary's diary, Jackson acquired the name because he was usually cemented!

In his diary, Zachary clears up a popular historical misconception regarding the origin of the term "Scorched Earth Policy", a phrase hither-to-fore associated with Sherman's march to the sea. Actually, according to Zachary, the "Scorched Earth Policy" was inaugurated by General Grant, who, every Sunday morning, lurched out of his tent, staggered up to the Confederate lines, and there, breathing defiance and I.W. Harper, leveled the ground as far as the eye could see.

After Grant had lost his corkscrew at the battle of Vicksburg, the General, with typical Yankee ingenuity, took to opening whiskey bottles with his teeth.

All went well until Manassas. The General had been standing in front of his tent, smiling broadly at a particularly lascivious bit of levity, when a stray musket ball whistled by, removing his front two incisors. Fortunately, Grant was anesthetized at the time.

The missing choppers caused Grant a great deal of embarrassment and no little expense, as half the booze which entered his mouth flowed back out again.

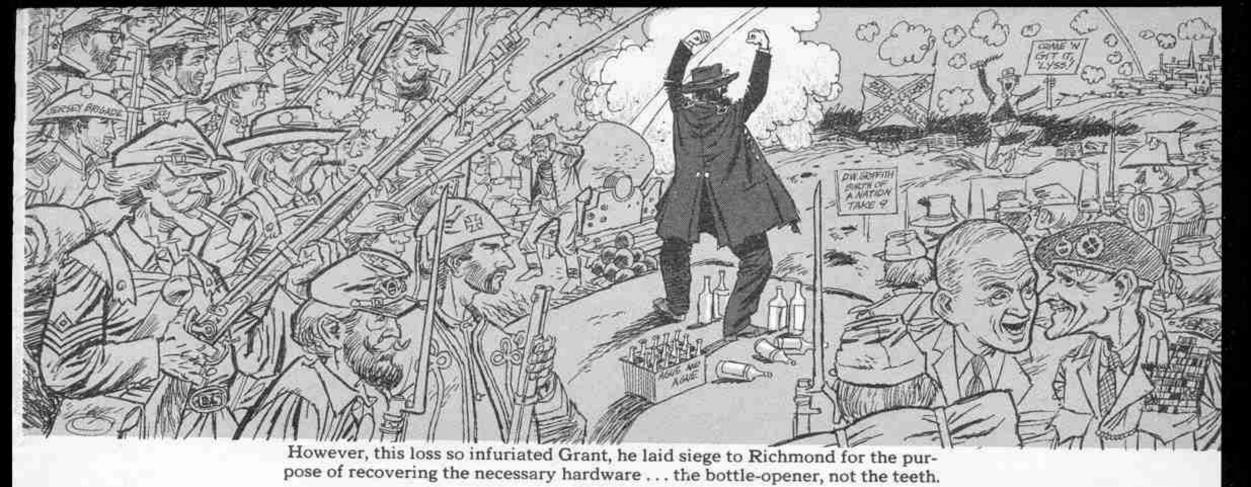

After three weeks of seepage, the General's whiskers were so sodden with alcohol, they took on the appearance and aroma of a wet collie.

Miles away, one of the older recruits was heard to remark, "I know it's one if by land, and two if by sea . . . but what in heck does a burning beard mean?"

While it is well-known that Mead invaded Chancelorsville, what most historians overlook is the fact that he did it by the light of Grant's beard!

GARY COOPER will return a pair of Adler Elevator Shoes

On a moonless night at Winslow's Landing, a shift in the wind brought the General's presence to the attention of a Confederate sniper.

The sniper took careful aim, pulled the trigger, and a roar went up from 20,000 Union throats. Grant's beard was on fire!

As Zachary says in his diary, "it burned like a beacon!"

The war dragged on until 1865. It could have ended sooner, but it took until 1865 before Grant was sober enough to pronounce "Appomattox".

On the last page of his diary, Uncle Zachary gives his personal opinion as to the reason for the outcome of the Civil War. The South lost because they were using Confederate Money.

SHAKESPEARE UP-TO-DATE

MARC ANTONY'S FUNERAL ORATION JULIUS CAESAR ACT III SCENE II

THE OLD VERSION

Friends, Romans, countrymen, Lend me your ears; I come to bury Caesar, not to praise him. The evil that men do lives after them; The good is oft interred with their bones; So let it be with Caesar. The noble Brutus Hath told you Caesar was ambitious; If it were so, it was a grievous fault, And grievously hath Caesar answer'd it. Here, under leave of Brutus and the rest,-For Brutus is an honorable man; So are they all, all honorable men,-Come I to speak in Caesar's funeral. He was my friend, faithful and just to me; But Brutus says he was ambitious; And Brutus is an honorable man. He hath brought many captives home to Rome, Whose ransoms did the general coffers fill; Did this in Caesar seem ambitious? When that the poor have cried, Caesar hath wept; Ambition should be made of sterner stuff; Yet Brutus says he was ambitious; And Brutus is an honorable man. You all did see that on the Lupercal I thrice presented him a kingly crown, Which he did thrice refuse; was this ambition? Yet Brutus says he was ambitious; And, sure, he is an honorable man. I speak not to disprove what Brutus spoke, But here I am to speak what I do know. You all did love him once, not without cause; What cause withholds you then to mourn for him?

THE MAD VERSION

Friends, Romans, hipsters, Let me clue you in; I come to put down Caesar, not to groove him. The square kicks some cats are on stay with them; The hip bits, like, go down under; So let it lay with Caesar. The cool Brutus Gave you the message Caesar had big eyes; If that's the sound, someone's copping a plea, And, like, old Caesar really set them straight. Here, copacetic with Brutus and the studs,— For Brutus is a real cool cat; So are they all, all cool cats,— Come I to make this gig at Caesar's lay down. He was my boy, the most and real gone to me; But, like, Brutus pegs him as having big eyes; And old Brutus is a real cool cat. He copped a lot of swinging heads for home, Which put us way out with that loot; Does this give Caesar big eyes? When the square cats bawled, Caesar flipped; Big eyes should be made of more solid megillah; Yet Brutus pegs him as having big eyes; And Brutus is a real cool cat. You all dug that bit at the Lupercal scene Three times I bugged him with the King's lid, And three times he hung me up; was this big eyes? Yet Brutus pegs him with big eyes; And, sure, he is a real cool cat. I don't want to double-O what Brutus gummed, But, like, I only dig what comes on straight. You all got a charge out of him once, So how come you don't cry the blues for him? Man! You are real nowhere, You don't make it anymore. Don't cut out on me; My guts are in the pad there with Caesar, And I gotta stop swinging till they round-trip.

O judgement! thou art fled to brutish beasts,

My heart is in the coffin there with Caesar,

And I must pause till it come back to me.

And men have lost their reason. Bear with me;
