OVER 10 MILLION SOLD!

Yep, over 10 million MAD readers are sold on the idea that these ads offering full color portraits of Alfred E. Neuman, MAD's "What-Me-Worry?" kid, suitable for framing or wrapping fish, will never work! So be an exception to the fool! Prove them wrong! Mail: 35c for one, 75c for 3, $1.55 for 9, $3.15 for 27 or $6.35 for 81 to: MAD, 485 MADison Avenue, N.Y., N.Y. 10022.

LETTERS DEPT.

NATIONAL SAFETY COUNCIL'S NEUMAN

I'm glad to see Alfred finally got his award (Safety's Man Of The Year), in the cause that either safeguards or vexes all of us; i.e. the 55 speed limit and "child-proof" medicine bottles!

Edward F. Geis
Chesapeake, Va.

INVASION OF THE BOOTY SNATCHERS

Drucker and Hart's "Booty Snatchers" made my Venus flytrap barf! That's more than it did when I took it to see the movie.

David Green
San Juan Capistrano,
California

"Invasion Of The Booty Snatchers" really grew on me!

Phil Kopp
Seattle, Wash.

I was very pleased to see the reference to the Burpee Seed Company on the Lima "Pod" in your satire, "Invasion Of The Booty Snatchers." It is encouraging to know that Alfred E. Neuman and friends not only know something about humor, but also gardening. I am not sure that Burpee breeders have quite yet developed a Lima plant that produces humans, but with some MAD inspiration, who knows what could happen!

W. Atlee Burpee IV
W. Atlee Burpee Co.
Santa Paula, Calif.

Tell Drucker and Hart that podding was such sweet sorrow!

Keith Pevey
Houston, Texas

KUDOS FROM WAY OUT FATHER

Since I was ten years old, MAD has been must reading. I am now a Catholic Priest and MAD continues to be must reading for me. Your satires help all of us to see if we really are who we say we are, and to really look at how our lives represent our real values. Keep poking our minds.

Fr. Phil Schmitter
Flint, Michigan

MEANWHILE, BACK AT THE KLAN . . .

As both the director and star of "Animal House," we would like to thank MAD Magazine for offending the Ku Klux Klan (Letters Dept., Sept. '79) in your "Abominal House" satire. It is an honor to be associated with any insult to the Klan.

John Landis

MAD SALUTES THE TURTLE

After reading "The Turtle," by Coker and Porges, I let my Hortense go swimming in my "inexpensive swimming pool." Then I thought, "Hey! Why don't I give her a whirlpool bath!" And you know something? I haven't seen the ungrateful critter since!

James Ganzer
New Britain, Conn.

I enjoyed your salute to "The Turtle" but Porges and Coker forgot to mention that turtles can be used as mail carriers by the U.S. Postal Service.

Brandon Hunt
Malibu, Calif.

Coker's turtle drawings are truly expressive. My turtle has a subscription to MAD himself and the other day I caught him swimming in his new-found "turtle swimming pool!"

Carol Spizman
Los Angeles,
California

Now that you have elevated "The Turtle," how about giving snails equal time?

Matthew K. Walt
Indianapolis, Ind.

THE GAME OF THE NAME

I'd like to share an intriguing pastime with your readers: trying to guess the title of Dave Berg's "The Lighter Side Of . . ." by reading the article, starting on the last page. It's a lot trickier than you might think. It's fun to see how many panels it takes to guess it right, or who among your friends can guess it first. As a college math teacher, I find it a challenging recreation.

Bill Leonard
Berkeley, Calif.

It's also much funnier that way!—Ed.

MAD ASSORTMENT OF EXPOSED JOCKS

Judging by Paul Peter Porges's blundering "Exposed Jocks," the locker-room insurance premiums must far exceed the annual gate receipts.

Charles Poggi
Hoboken, N.J.

A MUSICAL COMEDY

I thought you might like to add this to whatever "museum" you have about MAD Magazine. It happened during a Commencement, and the culprit is my son, Sheldon Granor.

Marie Granor
Dresher, Pa.

THE DISCO MAN

Considering I just studied Alfred Noyes's "The Highwayman" in school, I thoroughly enjoyed Tom Koch and Don Martin's "The Disco Man." Tom and Don put pepper in the Salsa beat.

Matthew Hendley
Waterloo, Canada

SHMORK & WINDY

Tonight I watched "Mork & Mindy" on TV and then turned to your TV satire. Presto! Instant replay! However, I think you missed the perfect cover. Mainly, Mork with Alfred's face, saying, "Shazbat ... me worry?"

Lois Aleta Fundis
Weirton, West Virginia

What you did to Robin Williams in "Shmork & Windy" was absolutely inhuman. Luckily, so is Mork.

Michael Webster
Tucson, Arizona

I think your "Shmork & Windy" stinks! Mork & Mindy is a funny comedy and you have no right to make fun of shows like that.

Michelle Wall
Ft. Wayne, Ind.

RICKARD'S "HEAVY" MINI-POSTER

Rickard's back cover presentiment, the Presidential pickaback, now sadly shapes up as a "fond" farewell to the Chief. Oh, the heat in that White House kitchen!

Joe Capitani
Rutherford, N.J.

THE BEST LAID PLANTS ... OFT GO BOOM DEPT.

In the past, there have been many hit motion pictures that have echoed sensational news stories. But recently, there was a sensational news story that echoed a hit motion picture. Some people say it was a coincidence, some people say it was ESP, and a few people claim it was a stunt by a publicity man that got out of hand. The incident, of course, was the "Three Mile Island Nuclear Power Plant Mishap" ... and the movie, of course, was the thrilling, frightening account of what goes on under:

Which sounds better? "255 die in plane crash!" ... "137 die in plane crash!" Or "14 die in plane crash!"?

I think "137 die in plane crash!" 255 is too high! It might ruin people's dinner! And 14 is too low! No one will care!

How can you MAKE UP news headlines like that?

We're members of the WRITER'S GUILD! We're paid to be creative!

Honey, I need help fast! The phone at the Weather Bureau is busy, and I have to make my forecast in three minutes! Can you look out the window for me?

Er ... does anybody know when we're going to finish shooting this last scene?

Yeah! We've been waiting around here a long time!

Good Heavens! Didn't anyone tell you?!? They wrapped up "NETWORK" three years ago! Go home! GO HOME!

Attention! One minute to air!

We're opening with the Clowns, cutting to the Marching Band, then dissolving to the Hot Dog Eating Contest ... right?

Right! Boy, directing a "News Show" is really tough!!

Hey, this is Kiddinglly Welts! I can't go on at the top of the show! My cameraman went to the bathroom, and he took his Mini-Cam with him!

We know!! And the jerk left it on!! No matter what—don't ANYBODY cut to that remote Mini-Cam camera!!

Okay, cue Kiddingly!!

Hi! This is Kiddingly Welts ... with today's "CALIFORNIA SWEET"...

... a bit of very light news designed to take your mind off all the sadness in the world ... by making you think of all the NAUSEA you'll get as you watch this segment!

... so if you want to send a special telegram to someone, "Lively Wires" has the answer! Its service is very different from Western Union in TWO ways! First, they SING the telegram! And second, they ACTUALLY DELIVER the message! Not only does "Lively Wires" have "SING-GRAMS," they also have "DANCE-GRAMS," GIFT-GRAMS" and for people you hate ... "BOMB-GRAMS"!

Okay, everybody, let's pack it up! We have to get right over to the Banana Nuclear Plant to film our Energy Special!

Miss Welts? I have this FLOWER DELIVERY for you! That'll be $10.00!

I owe YOU $10.00?!!

That's right! It's a "C.O.D.-GRAM"!

ARTIST: MORT DRUCKER

WRITER: DICK DE BARTOLO

Hello! I'm Bull Glib ... the Public Relations man for C.G.&E.!

C.G.&E.? Is that "California Gas & Electric?"

Yeah, but around here, we jokingly refer to it as "California Gouging and Embezzlement"! Now let me show you how nuclear power works!

A nuclear chain reaction produces heat, the heat produces steam, the steam turns the turbine, the turbine rotates the generator, the generator powers the computer, and the computer sends out your Electric Bills! So, the faster we turn the turbine, the higher your Electric Bills!

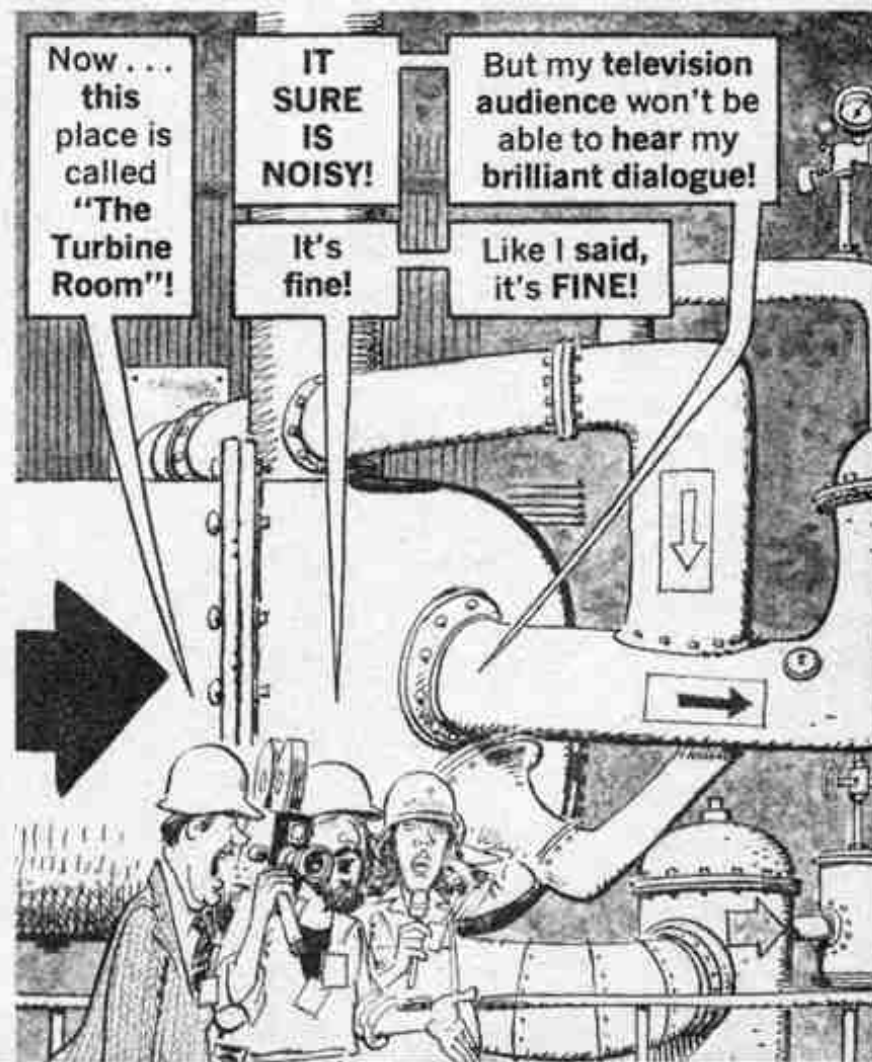

Now ... this place is called "The Turbine Room"!

IT SURE IS NOISY!

It's fine!

But my television audience won't be able to hear my brilliant dialogue!

Like I said, it's FINE!

Now, down there is the Control Room . . . but I'm afraid you cannot photograph it for security reasons!

What kind of security reasons?

If people on the outside see how casually we run this plant, they'll lose their SECURE FEELINGS about nuclear power!

What was that?

That vibration!

Then why is that ALARM sounding??

Oh . . . that's our "Nothing Alarm!" It sounds when NOTHING goes WRONG!!

What was WHAT . . . ?

Forget it! It was nothing!

We've got a turbine "trip!" Take it off the line and stabilize the reactor!

This gauge says we have TOO MUCH water in the core!

Don't panic! We've got a second gauge!

The second gauge says we have TOO LITTLE water in the core!

That, men, is the reason we have THREE gauges! What does the third gauge say . . . ?

The third gauge is BROKEN!!

Damn! If someone would've thought about having FOUR gauges, we wouldn't be in the mess we're in right now!

Goetell, it's Bull Gibbs . . . up on the Visitors' Gallery! I have some folks from TV Channel 3 with me! They want to know what's going ON down there!

Just a routine turbine "trip!" Nothing to worry about! But . . . if you want to feel totally safe, just step back a little!

How far back?

Arizona should do it!

There goes ANOTHER ALARM! Are you SURE we're not in any danger?!?

Look for yourself! Are those people panicking?

No . . . they're too busy BARFING to panic!

I swear . . . this is NOT an emergency! This is all routine! It is NOT serious!

ATTENTION! THIS IS AN EMERGENCY! THIS IS NOT ROUTINE! IT IS SERIOUS!

Boy . . . just give a guy a microphone, and right away, he starts ad-libbing!

We've got too much pressure building up! Open valves 7 and 8!!

You can't do that! Why not?!

Because it could leak and cause a nuclear explosion . . . it could contaminate the earth for ten miles around . . . and besides, it's almost QUITTING TIME!

We've got tonight's lead! Adamant shot film of an actual nuclear accident and no one knows we have it!

Too bad we can't use it! It's totally irresponsible to go on the air without all the facts!

But if we don't use this film, we don't have a LEAD STORY!

That's no problem! I'll make one up! Let's see... "Nursery Burns To The Ground! Sixteen Infants Perish!" Or how about "Tornado Hits Old Age Home!"

Boy... look who's talking "irresponsible!!!"

NEWS

Mr. Sonovitch! I want to do stories with more meat in them! Like today, all I got to do was go to the zoo and cover a lion's birthday party!

Don't worry, Kidding! Tomorrow, we've got an assignment for you that's meaty and weighty and religious! You're going BACK to the zoo and cover an elephant's bar mitzvah!

Spineless, after the turbine "trip," did you feel a secondary vibration?

Yeah! It was my stomach! I was scared witless!

I SWEAR there was a secondary vibration! Why doesn't this sensitive Vibration Recorder tape SHOW IT?!!

Because, for some odd reason, at the very second you claim you felt a secondary vibration, the Recorder needle fell off the machine!

NUCLEAR WASTE

NON-NUCLEAR WASTE

I'm worried about this investigation! The experts from the Atomic Energy Agency are really digging deep! They even asked me my home phone number!

Don't worry! You'll come out just fine!

That's easy for YOU to say! You're an engineer and an ex-Navy man! I'm just an ordinary worker! I didn't even know till today this is a NUCLEAR Power Plant!

DO NOT ENTER INVESTIGATION GOING ON

You can stop worrying and go home now, Spineless! The investigation is over! I don't think they want to see you...!

Oh...? How come?

I told them exactly what happened... and they all FAINTED!

You better find your cameraman, Adamant! He stole the film of the nuclear power plant accident out of the film vault!

WHAT?! How did he get into the vault?

The vault is NEVER locked! Who ever heard of a Network Executive with brains enough to remember a combination to a safe?!!

Hi! Won't you join me?

Well, this IS a coincidence! That I work at the power plant?

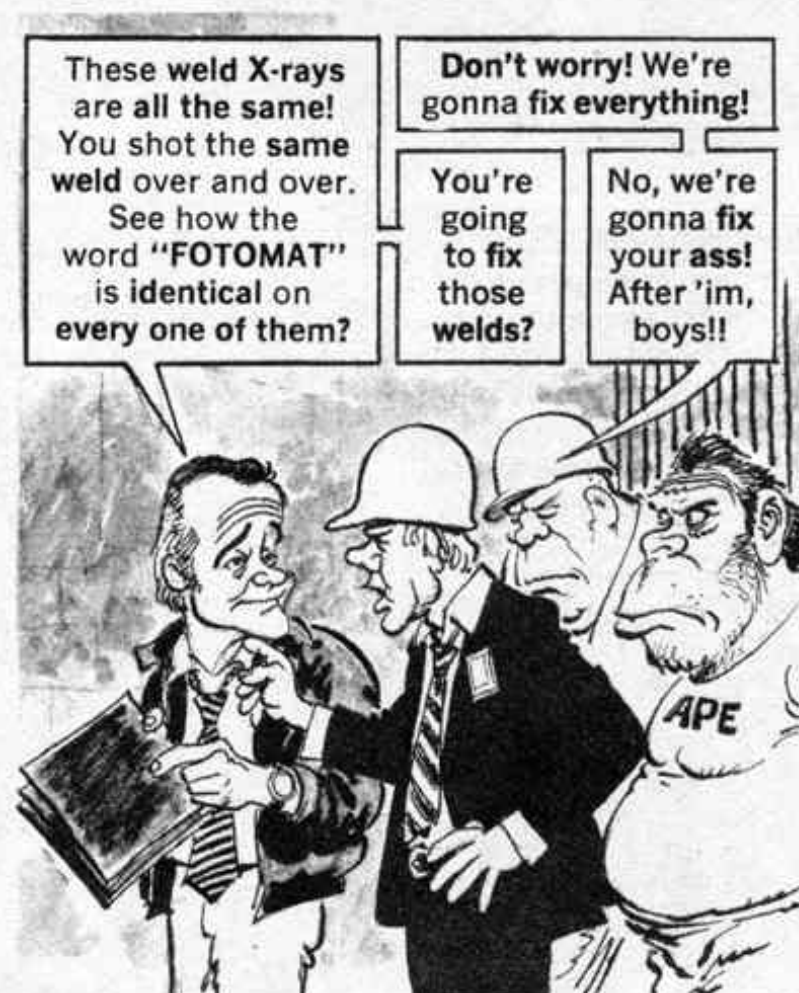

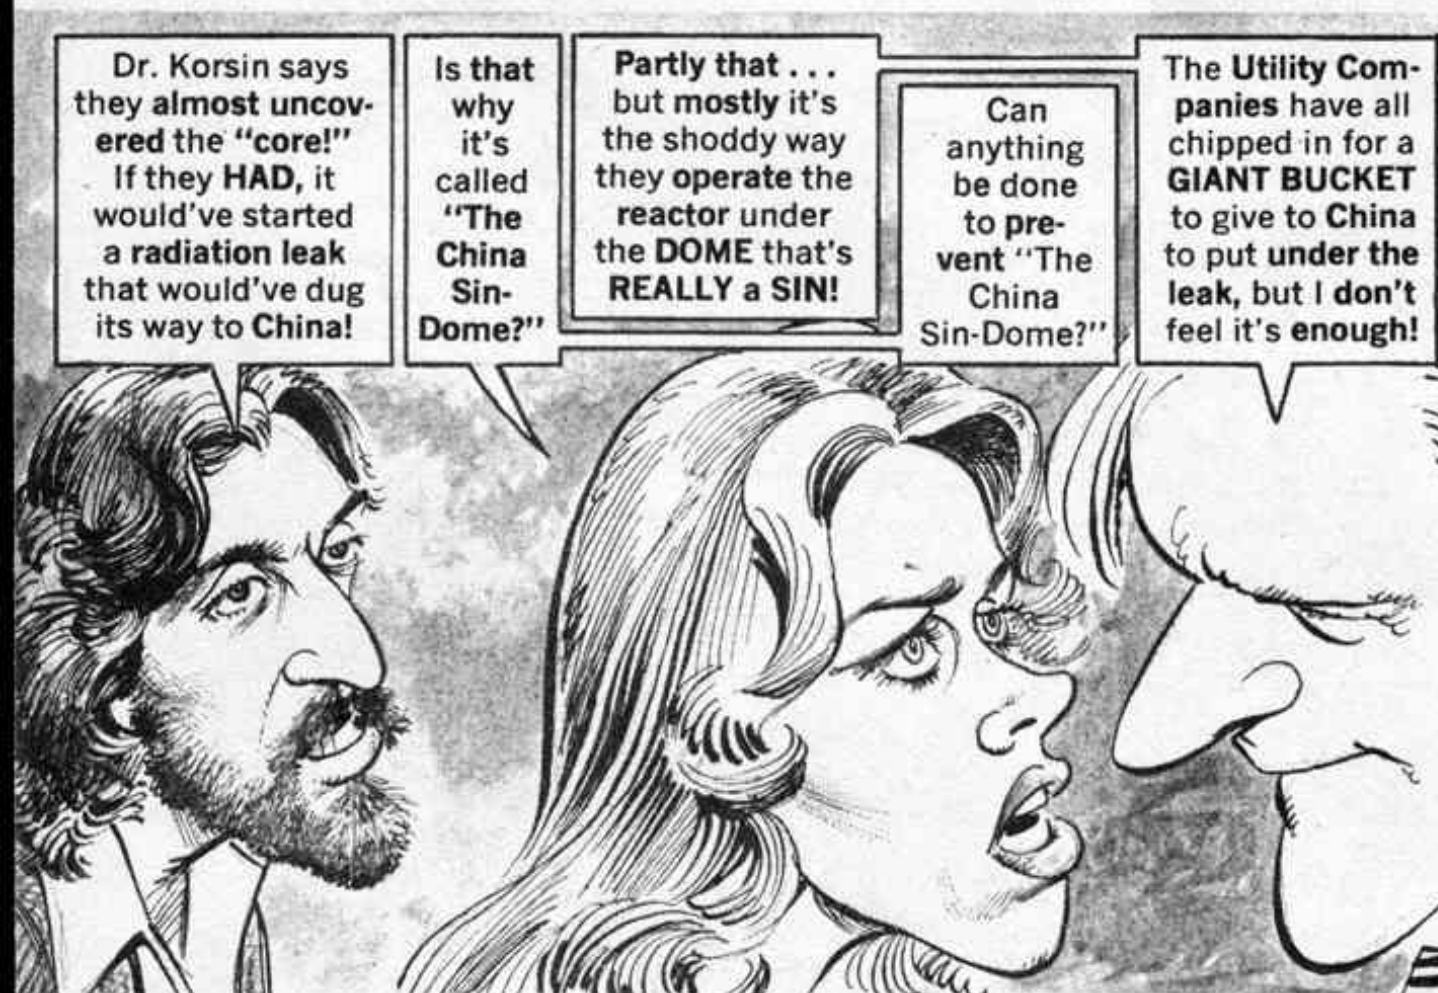

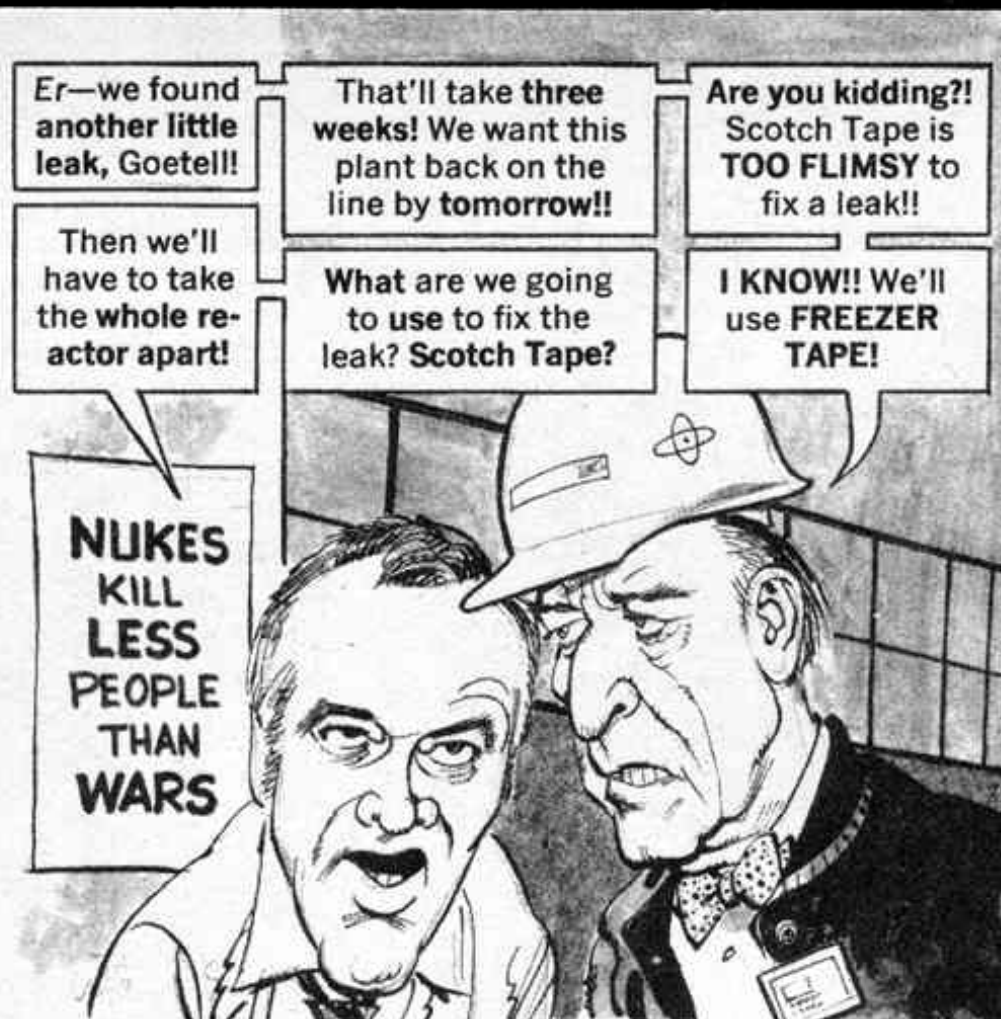

That out of all the bars in California, I pick the same one you're in!

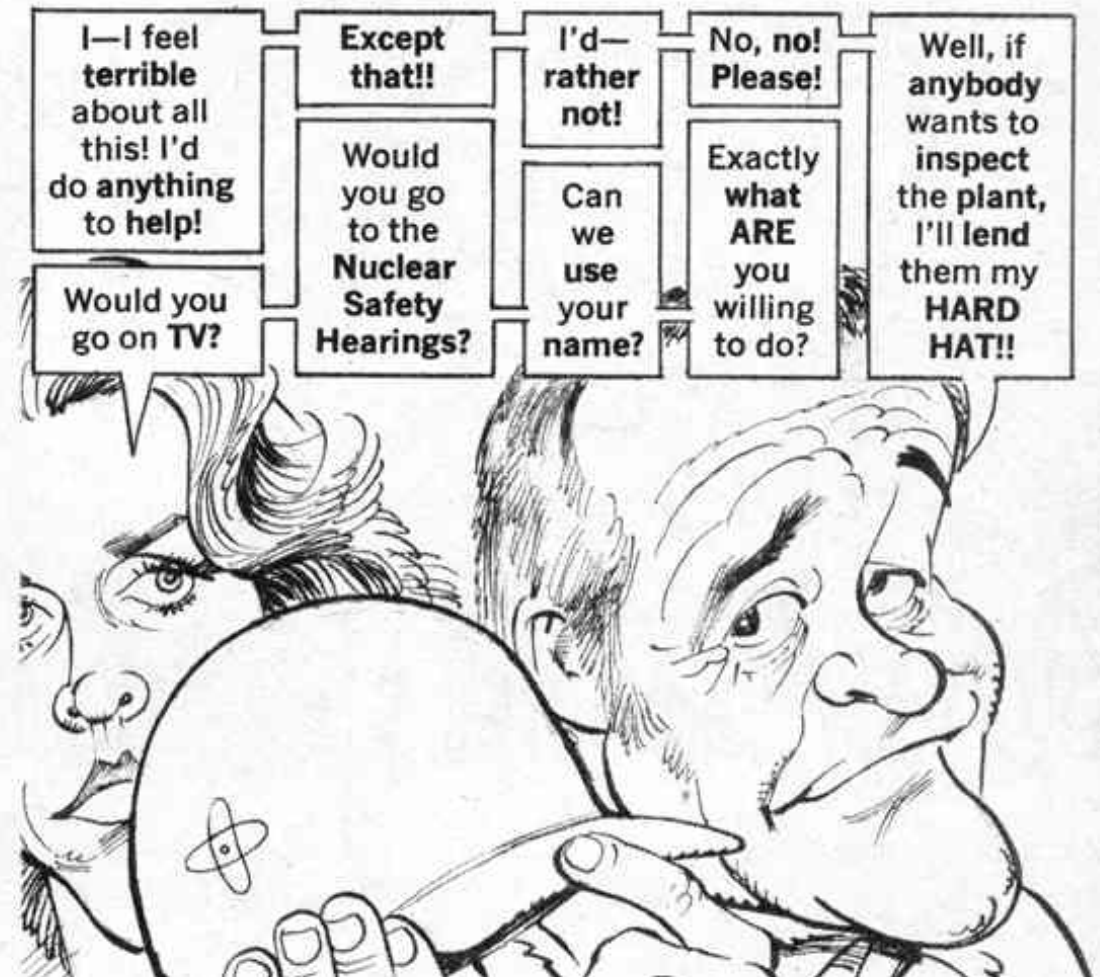

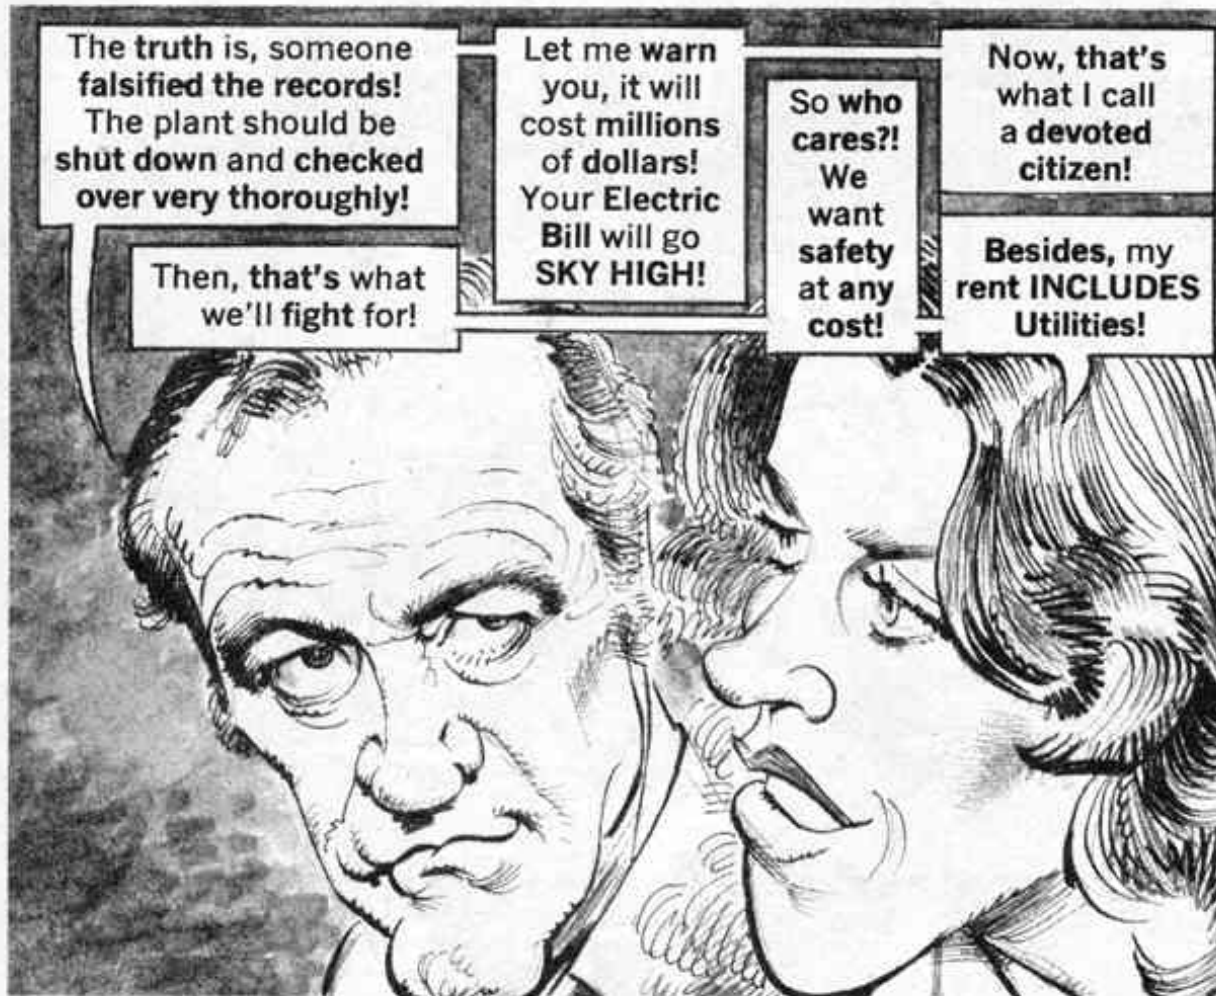

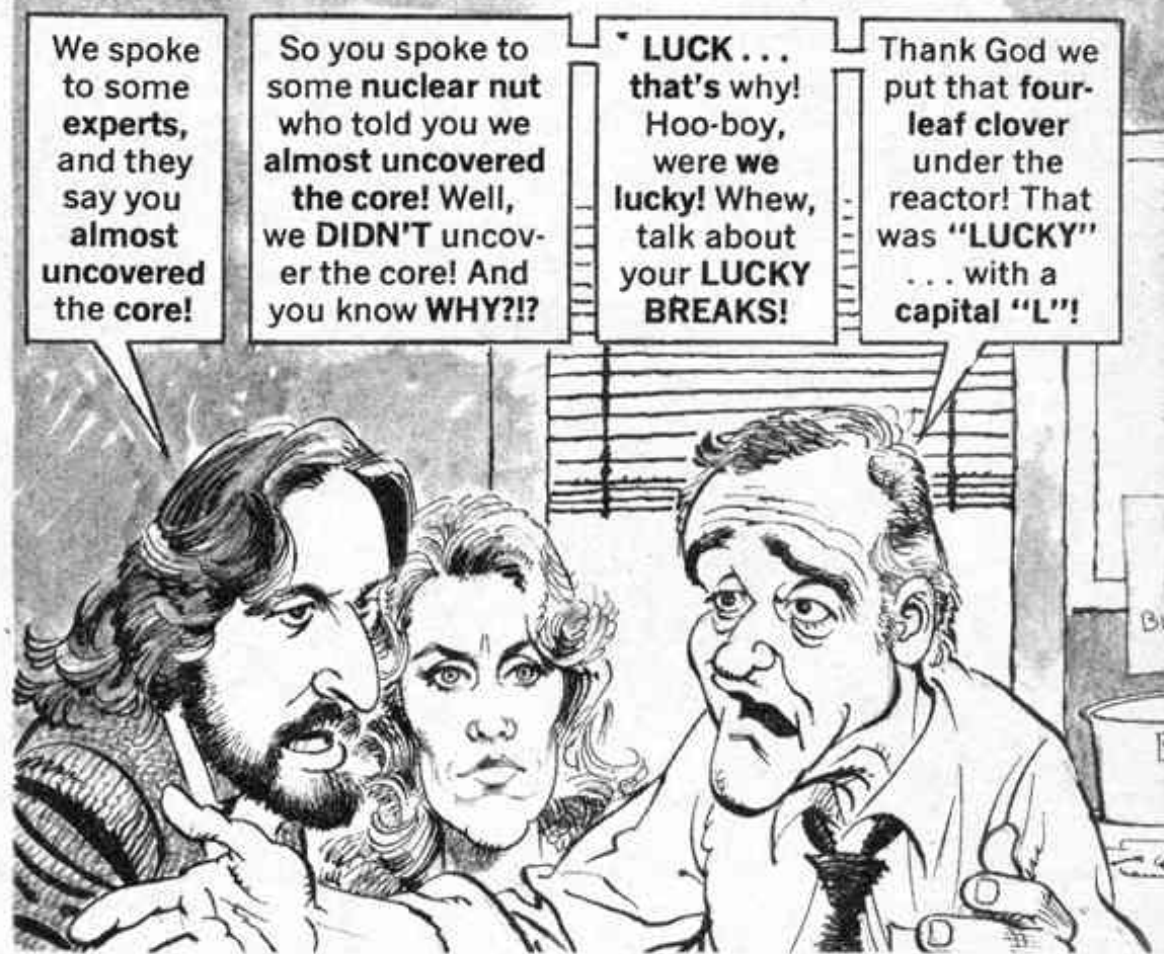

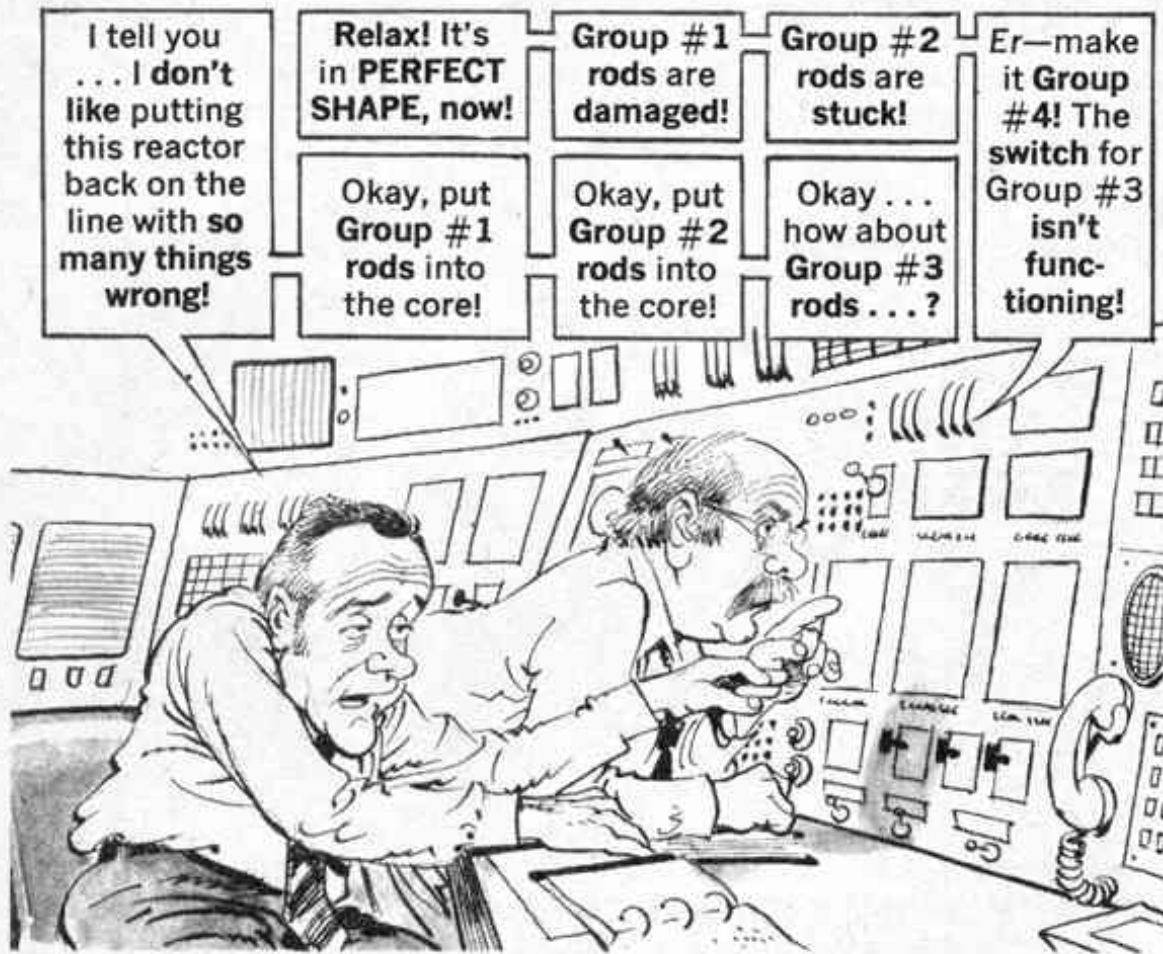

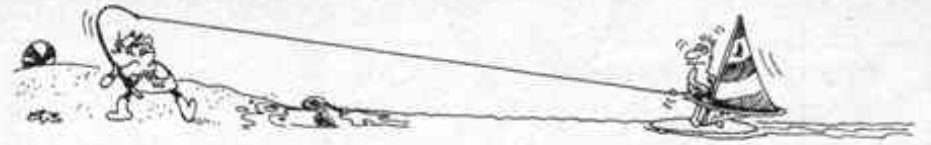

DUKE

DOWN WITH SOLAR ENERGY

What's going ON here! I TOLD you you can't put this plant back on the line! I mean, listen to it! It sounds awful! It's moaning and groaning! How much power is it up to?!!

About 11%!

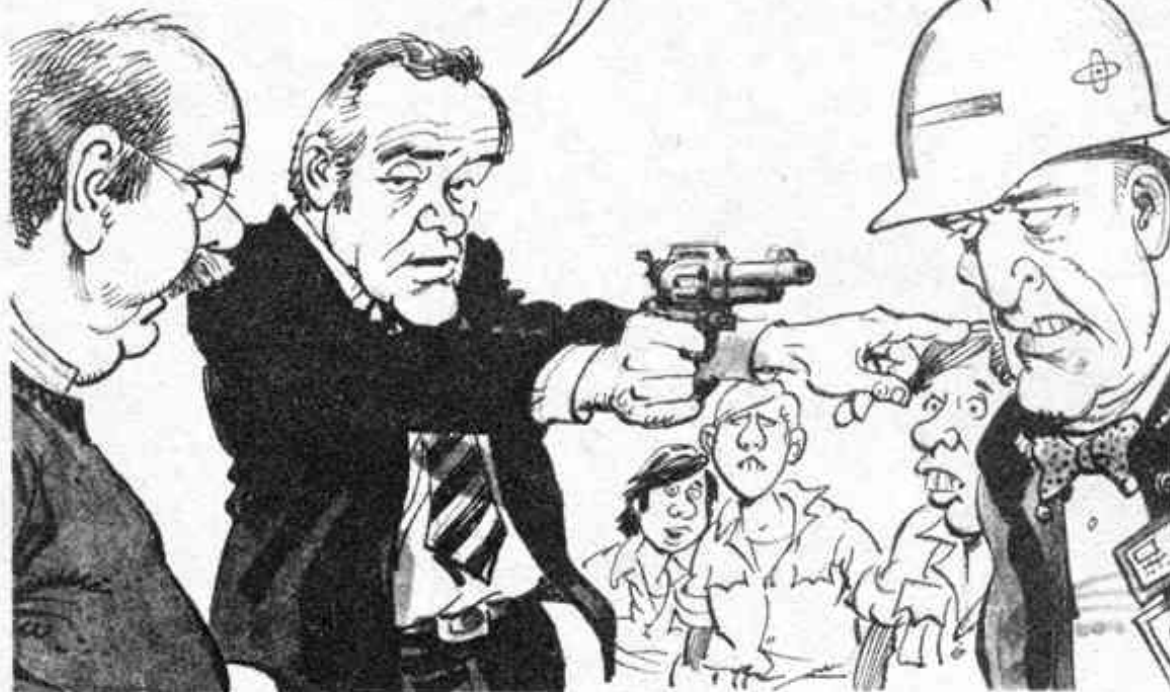

11%?! At this rate, it'll fall apart at 20%!!

No problem! We're not going to run it at 20%! We're going to run it at 100%!!

Okay . . . everybody OUT!! I'm taking over!

And I warn you! Don't monkey around with the security system, or I'll flood the place . . . and do a LOT of damage!

Big deal! There's so much damage NOW, what's a little MORE?!!

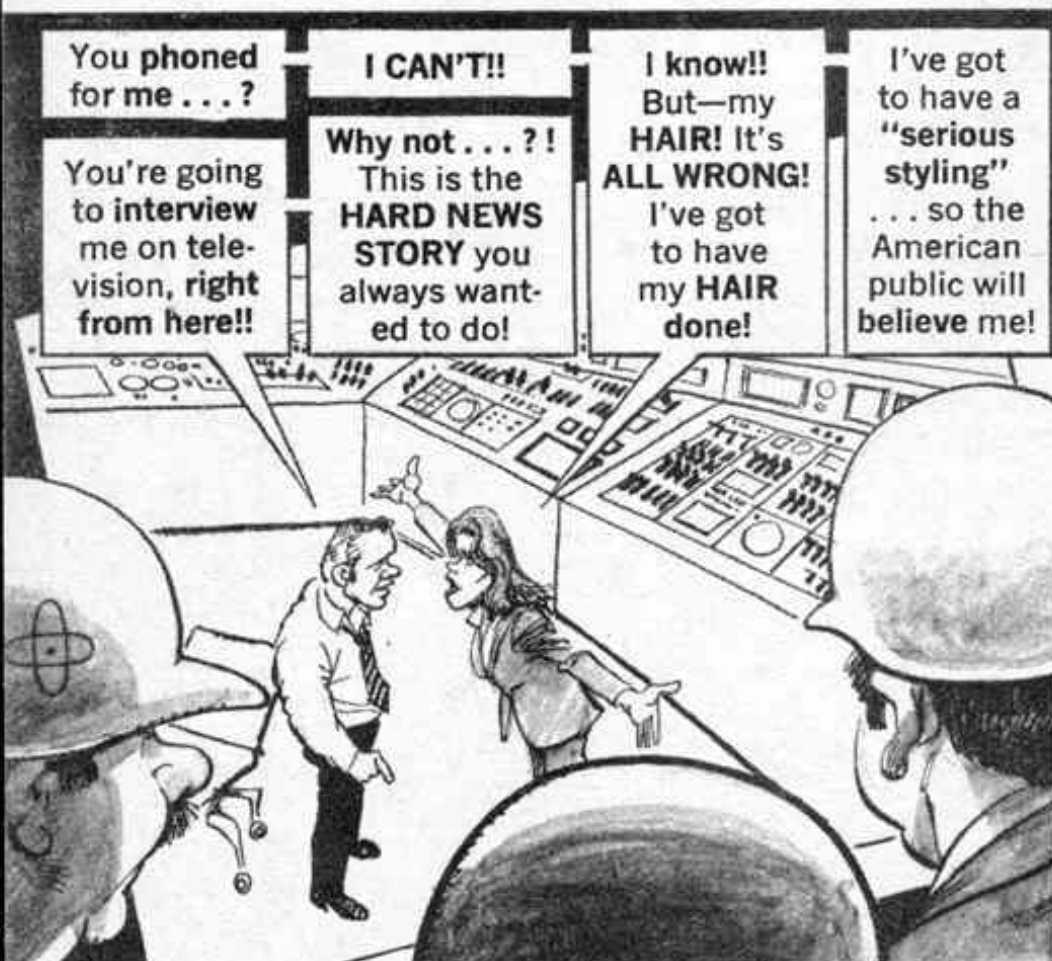

You phoned for me . . . ?

I CAN'T!!

Why not . . . ?! This is the HARD NEWS STORY you always wanted to do!

I know!! But—my HAIR! It's ALL WRONG! I've got to have my HAIR done!

I've got to have a "serious styling" . . . so the American public will believe me!

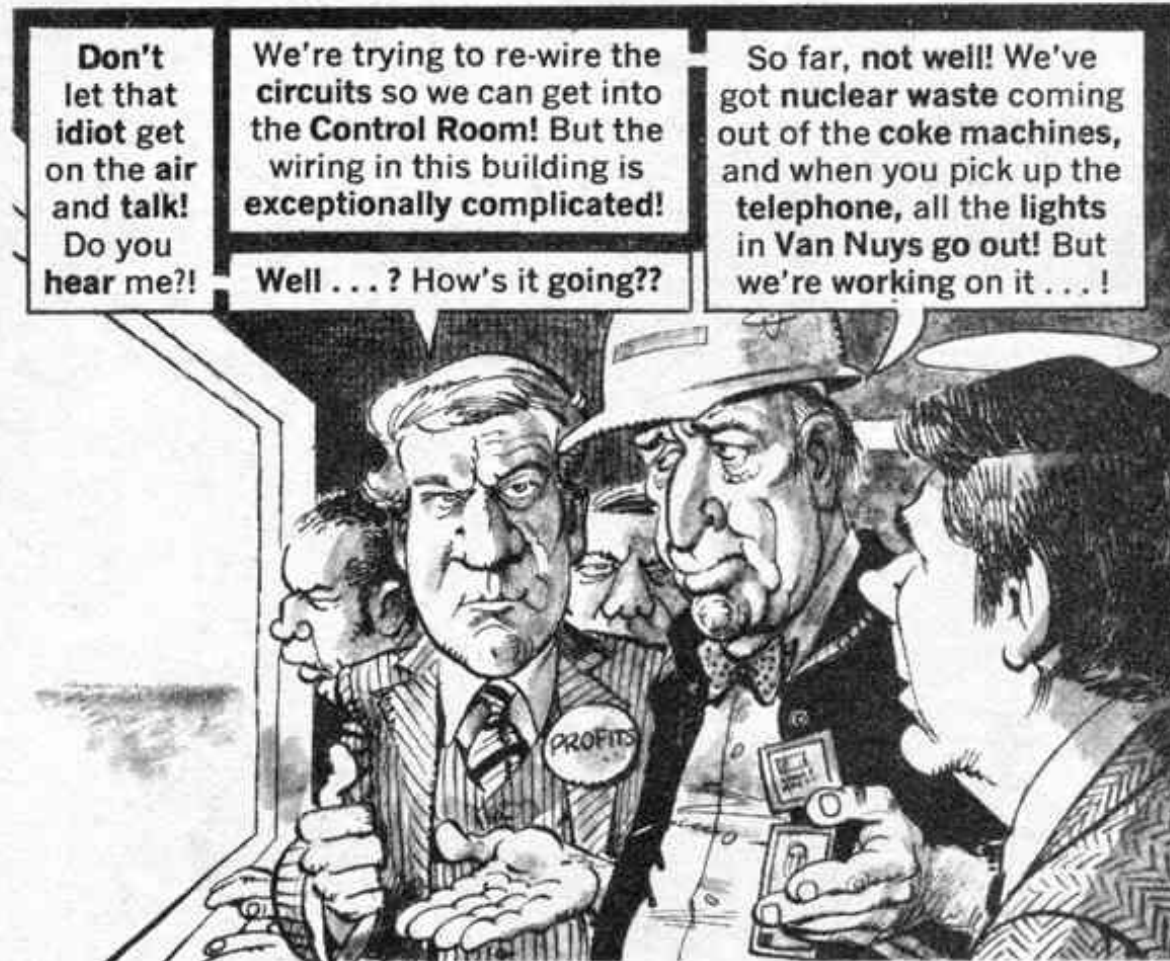

Don't let that idiot get on the air and talk! Do you hear me?!

We're trying to re-wire the circuits so we can get into the Control Room! But the wiring in this building is exceptionally complicated!

Well . . . ? How's it going??

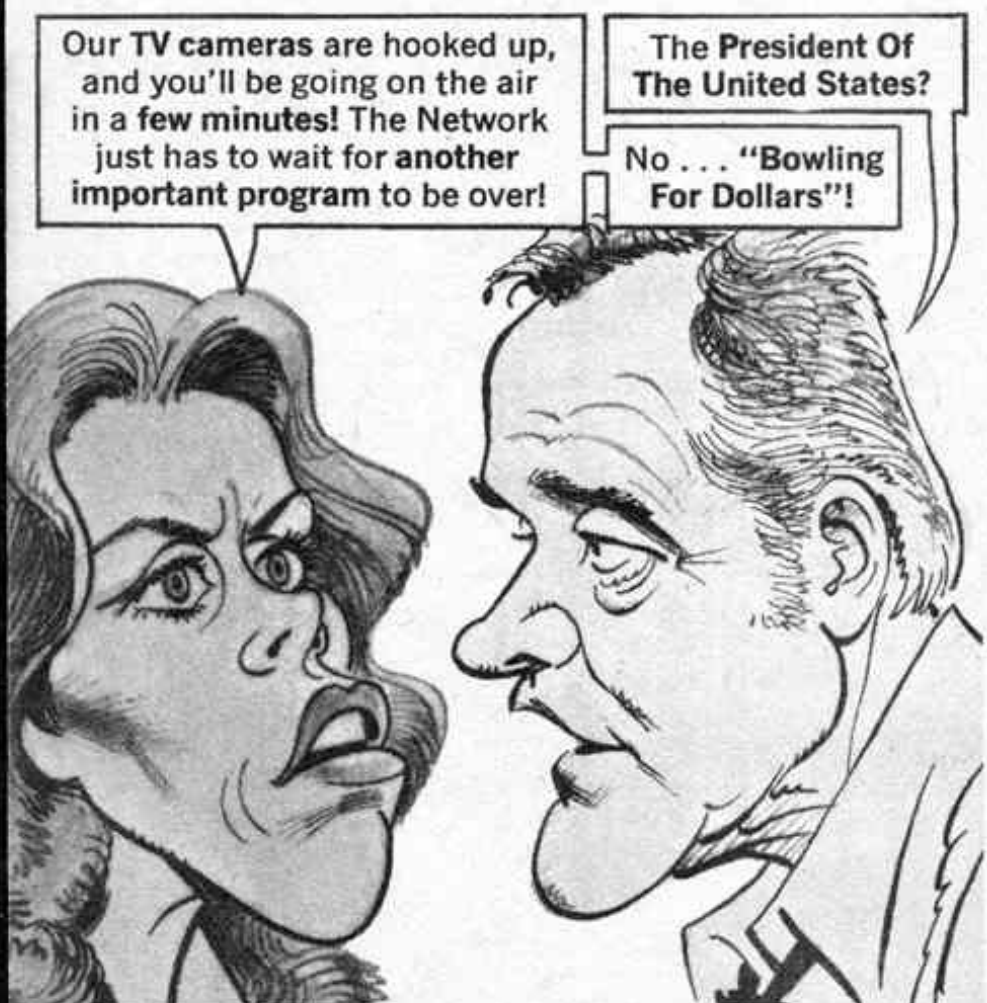

So far, not well! We've got nuclear waste coming out of the coke machines, and when you pick up the telephone, all the lights in Van Nuys go out! But we're working on it . . . !

Our TV cameras are hooked up, and you'll be going on the air in a few minutes! The Network just has to wait for another important program to be over!

The President Of The United States?

No . . . "Bowling For Dollars"!

Okay, we're on the air! Now—Mr. Goetell . . . would you explain to our viewers what's happened here?

Well, see . . . this relay . . . no, this defective valve . . . uh . . . this stuck petcock . . . er . . . there was this second vibration—

I . . . I'm afraid I just can't go on!

For someone as TECHNICAL-MINDED as me, this accident was just TOO DAMN SIMPLE to explain!!

Oh, my God!! There goes the ALARM again!!

And the generator is tearing loose from its base!!

And here comes a SWAT Team ... smashing through the locked doors with their guns blazing ...!!

We'll be back with MORE live action in a moment!

But first, these important messages from our sponsors!

My God!! He's DEAD!! They SHOT GOETELL!!

Who'd believe that C.G.&E. would let things go this far?!

You folks who are two or three months BEHIND on paying your Electric Bills ... maybe we better show you that shooting again in slow motion!!

I really don't know what all the commotion's about!

You DON'T?!? An employee is shot!! A reactor falls apart! A reactor core is almost uncovered! News is withheld from the public!

But these things happen EVERY DAY at a nuclear power plant! I wish the Press wouldn't make such a BIG DEAL out of some routine problems!

Folks, I have a prepared statement to read ...! "At NO TIME was this nuclear power plant in danger!"

Okay ... the PLANT was never in danger! But what about the PEOPLE?!

Like I said ... the PLANT was never in danger! Now, if you want to talk to any C.G.&E. Executives personally, you can phone them at the Golden Lei Hotel!

The Golden Lei Hotel?! That's in HAWAII!! Why are they in Hawaii?!?

Because it was just impossible to get airline tickets to EUROPE on such short notice!'

Folks, this is one of Mr. Goetell's best friends ...

People here are saying that Jack Goetell was a looney! WAS he in fact a looney?

Definitely not! Weird—maybe! Sick—a touch! Off the wall—perhaps! Bonkers—a bit! Crazy—

Well, folks, if this is one of Jack Goetell's BEST FRIENDS, it's no wonder he wasn't shot a lot earlier than this!!

Kiddingly, you did such a fantastic job on the Reactor Mishap story, we've bought you something to show you our appreciation!

No more covering an assignment in that little Jeep! The station has bought you your own fully-equipped Mobile TV Studio ... with its own power supply!

That's wonderful, Mr. Sonovitch—but with the gas shortage, is it a wise investment!? It must burn a ton of gasoline!

That's the best part! The van is NUCLEAR POWERED!

Why restrict the awarding of medals to the military? After all, Civilians perform heroic acts while fighting life's daily battles as well! Let's recognize them with

THIS ISSUE'S PROPOSED MAD MEDALS

... TO BE PRESENTED TO DESERVING MEDICAL WORKERS

THE FETID
FOOD CITATION

For bravely facing without fear the verbal wrath and physical abuse of hospital patients while courageously producing inedible food so patients won't over-eat and get tummy aches.

THE WINGED
BILL MEDAL

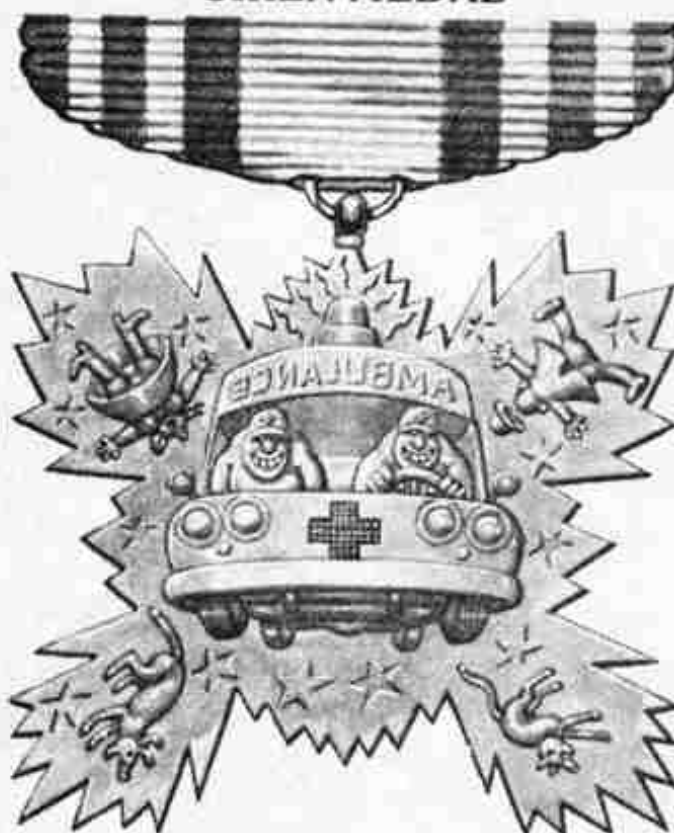

For promptness above and beyond belief in sending out bills so that patients need not suffer the agony of delay in arranging loans, or selling their cars or homes to raise money to pay them.

THE STONE
HEART AWARD

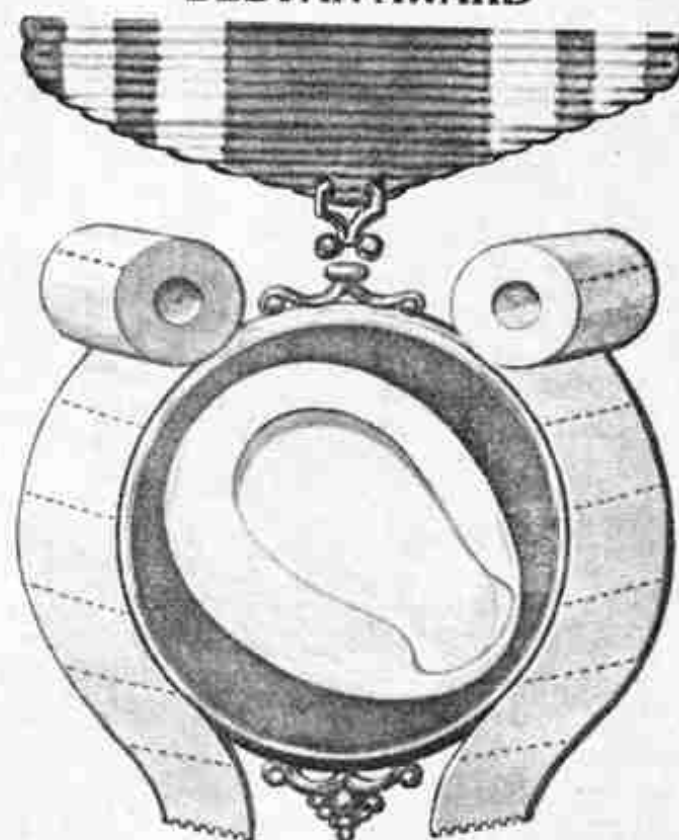

For gallantly treating all patients—regardless of race, color or creed—with equality . . . which means never ever showing favoritism such as being sweet, considerate and understanding.

THE SCREAMING
SIREN MEDAL

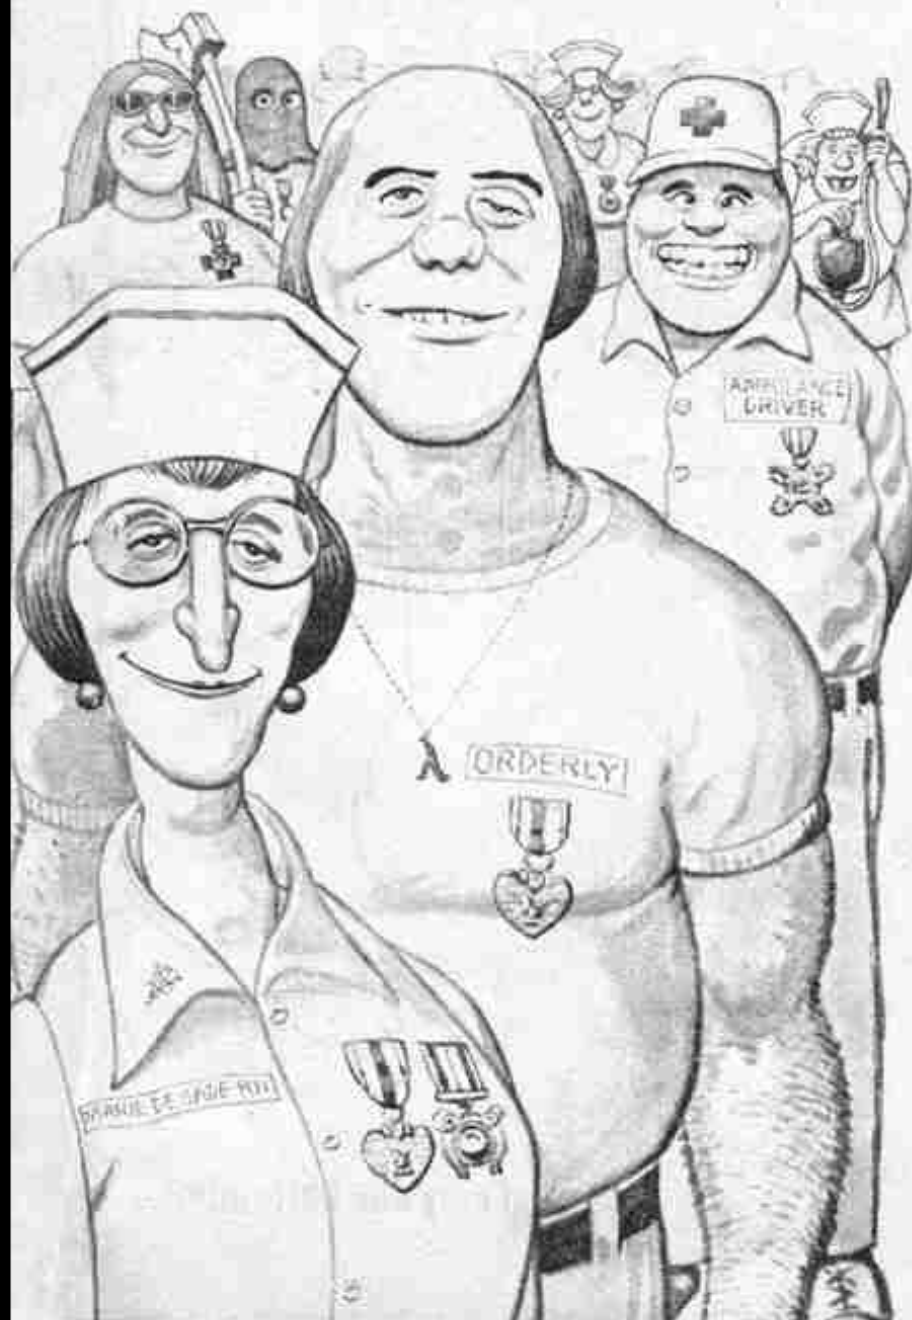

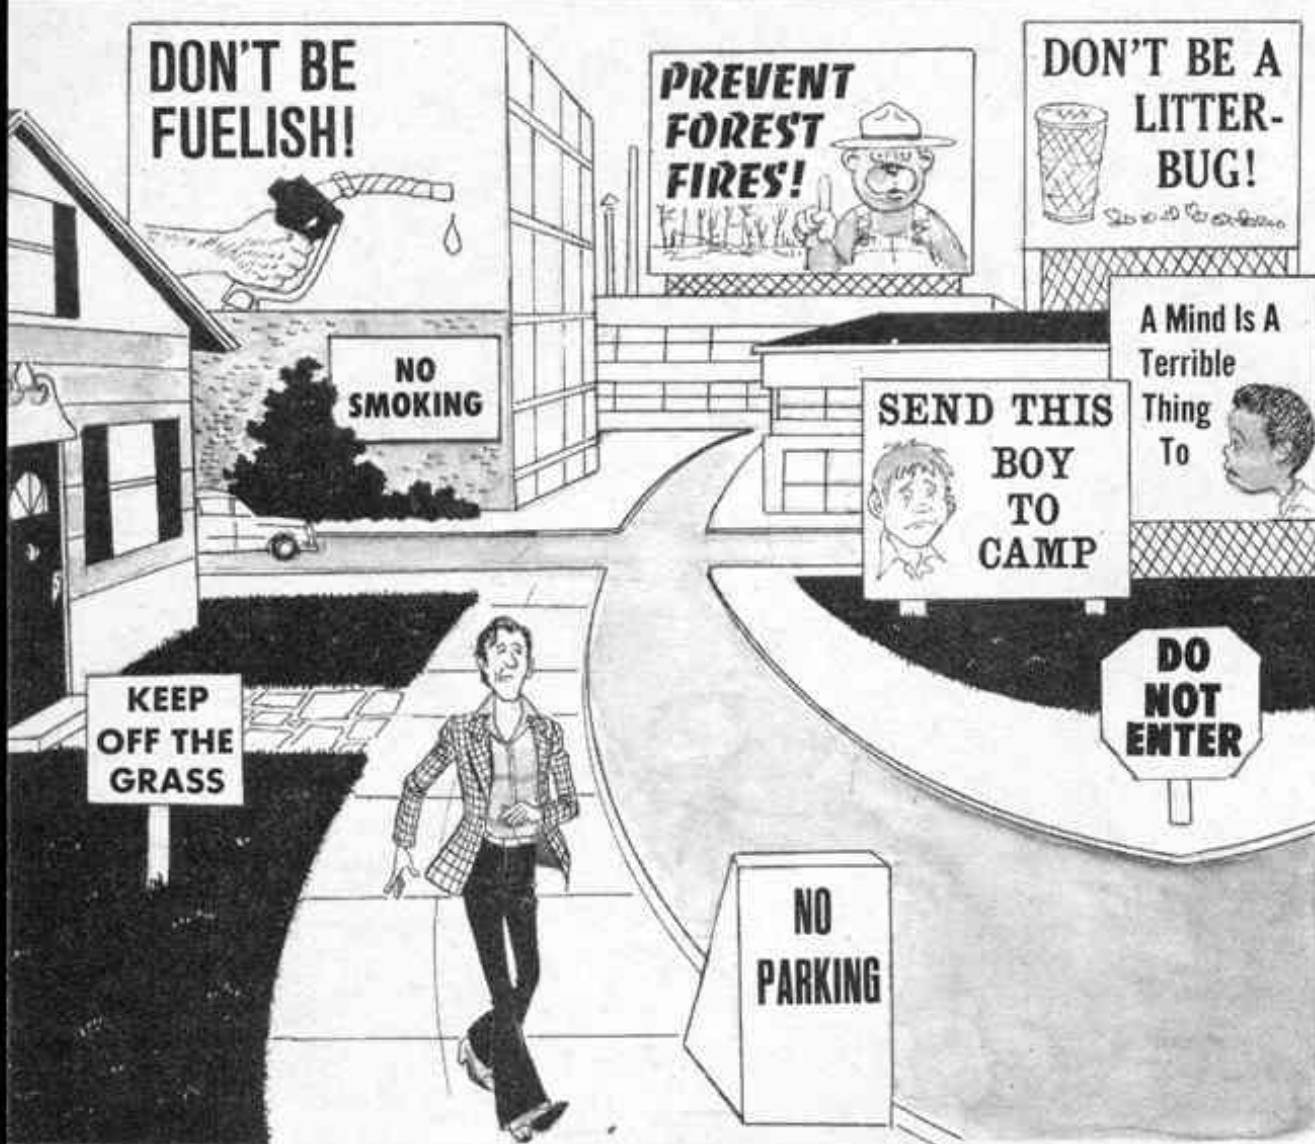

For heroically risking life and limb in order to race patients to the hospital emergency room, even though the place is hopelessly overcrowded and the patients won't even be looked at for eight or nine hours at the least.

THE SILVER
BEDPAN AWARD

For ignoring the selfish screams of emergency patients while faithfully carrying out the vital job of filling out Blue Cross forms. As many of the patients will die, catering to their whims would be a waste of time anyway.

Do YOU think I'm a dirty rat fink, guilty of wastefulness?

That all depends! WHERE are you driving TO???

I'm trying to find a gas station that has GAS!!

I was demonstrating against Nuclear Power all day—a cause I truly believe in! And yet, I have such twinges of GUILT!!

Why do you feel so strongly against Nukes?

Because RADIATION causes CANCER!!

That sounds like a noble reason! Why do you feel so guilty . . . ??

Because in the six hours I was on the picket line—

—I smoked TWO PACKS OF CIGARETTES!!

There are times when I look at a poor man like that and I get pangs of conscience!

After all . . . I've got wealth . . . and everything that goes with it, while that poor soul has absolutely NOTHING!!

But then there are times when I say, "Why doesn't he go out and get it . . . the way I did!!?"

INHERIT IT?!!

Oh-oh! I just dented the fender of that car as I was pulling out of the parking space! I think maybe I ought to do something about it . . . !

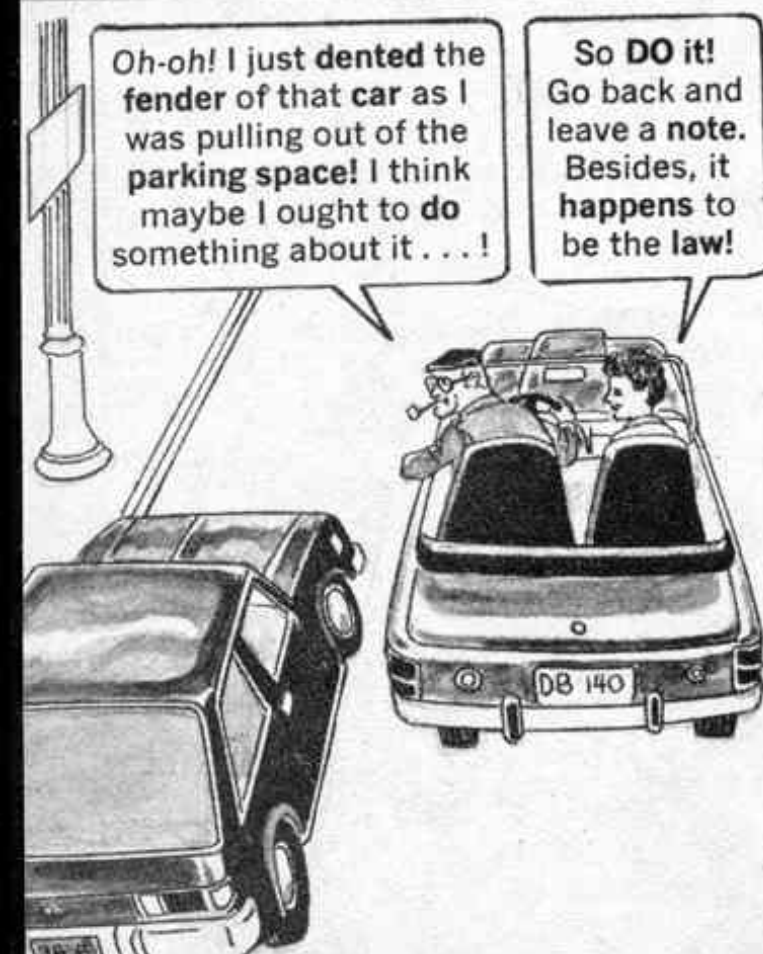

So DO it! Go back and leave a note. Besides, it happens to be the law!

When you're right, you are right! I'll DO it!

Okay, I DID it!

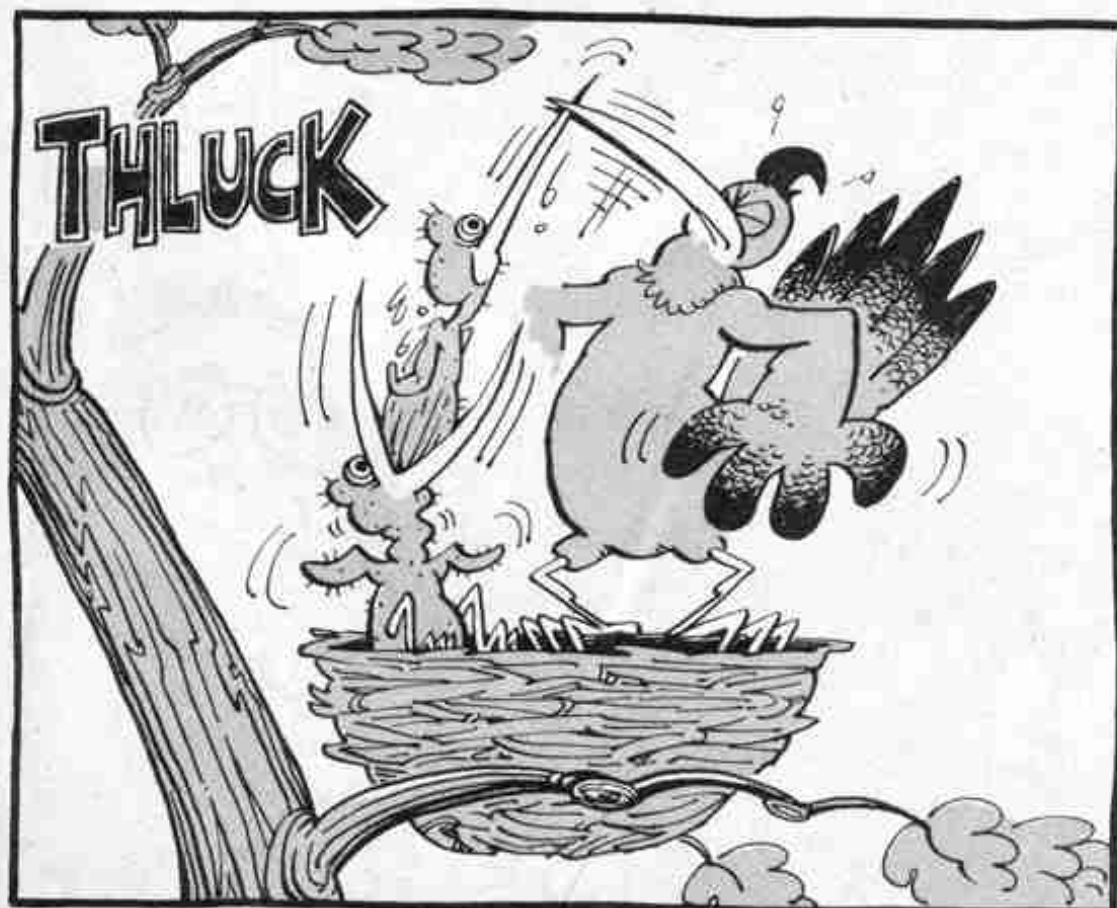

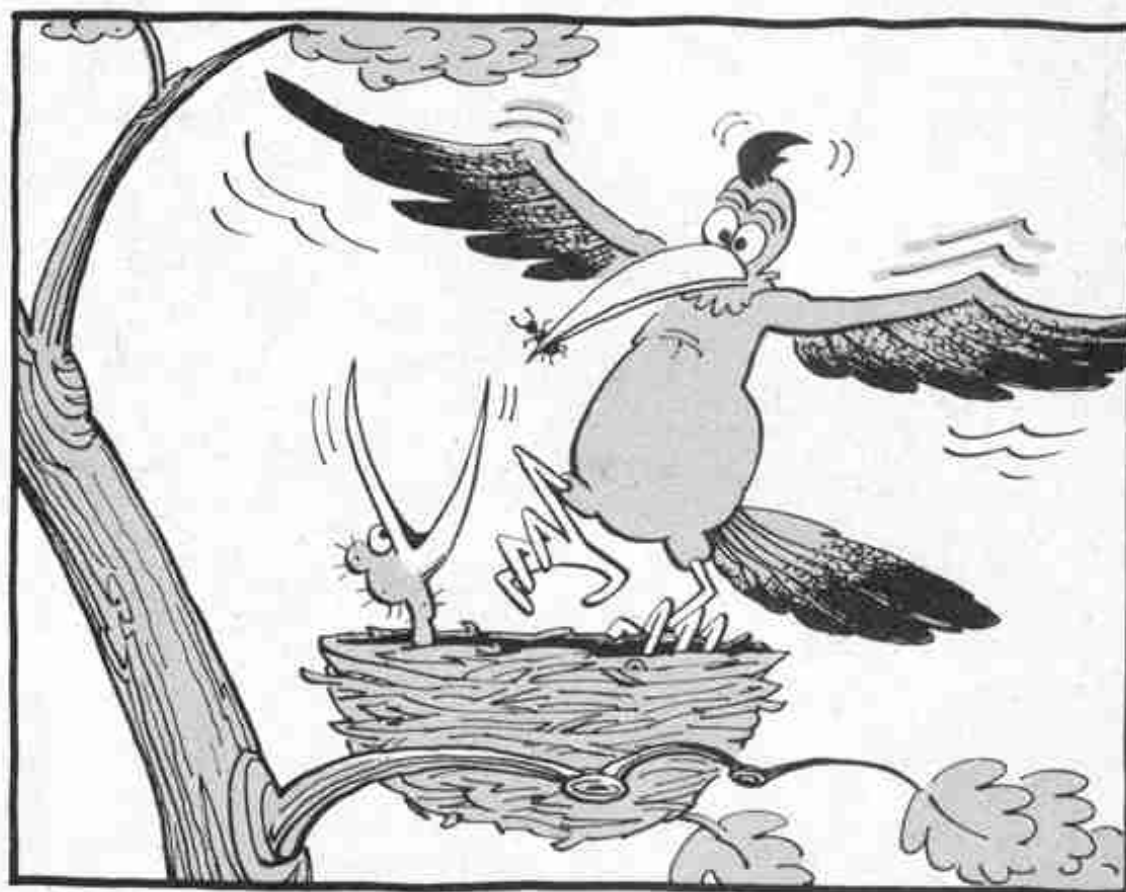

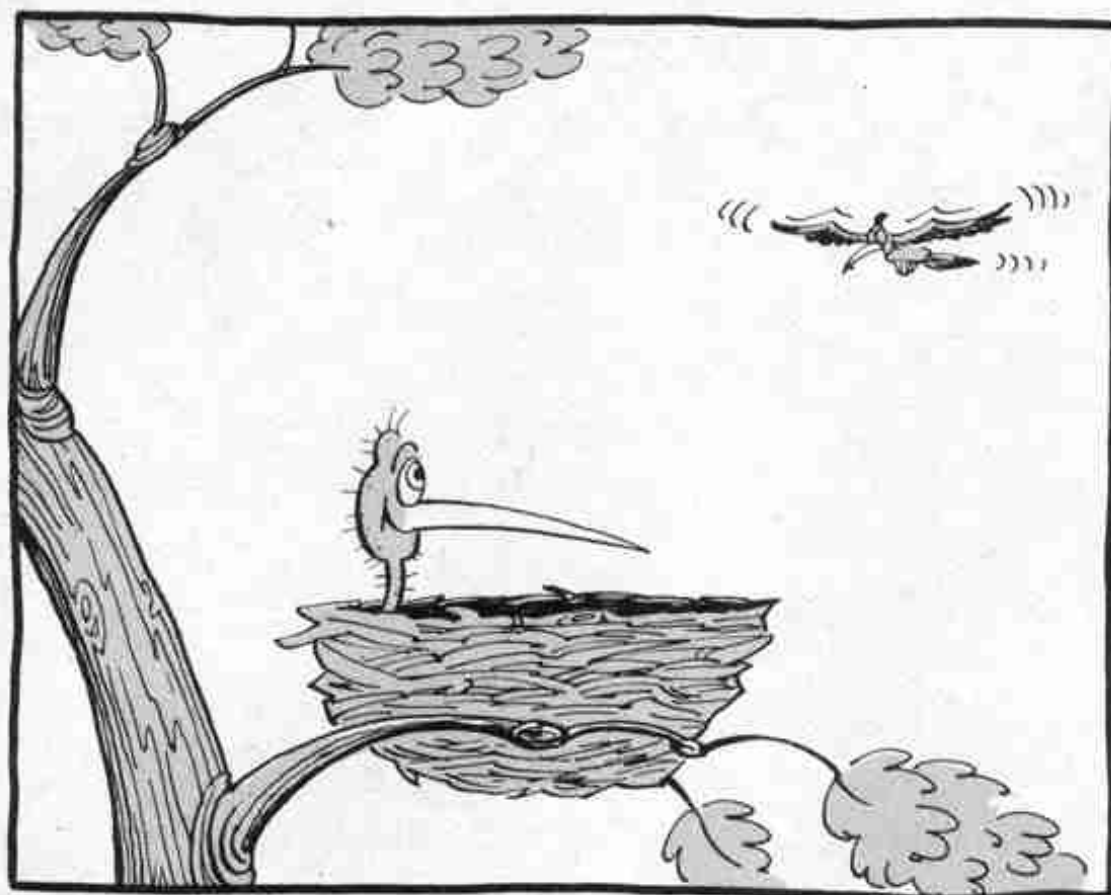

Good for you! What did you write . . . ?

"Sorry!"

THE GIFT

WRITER: FRANK JACOBS

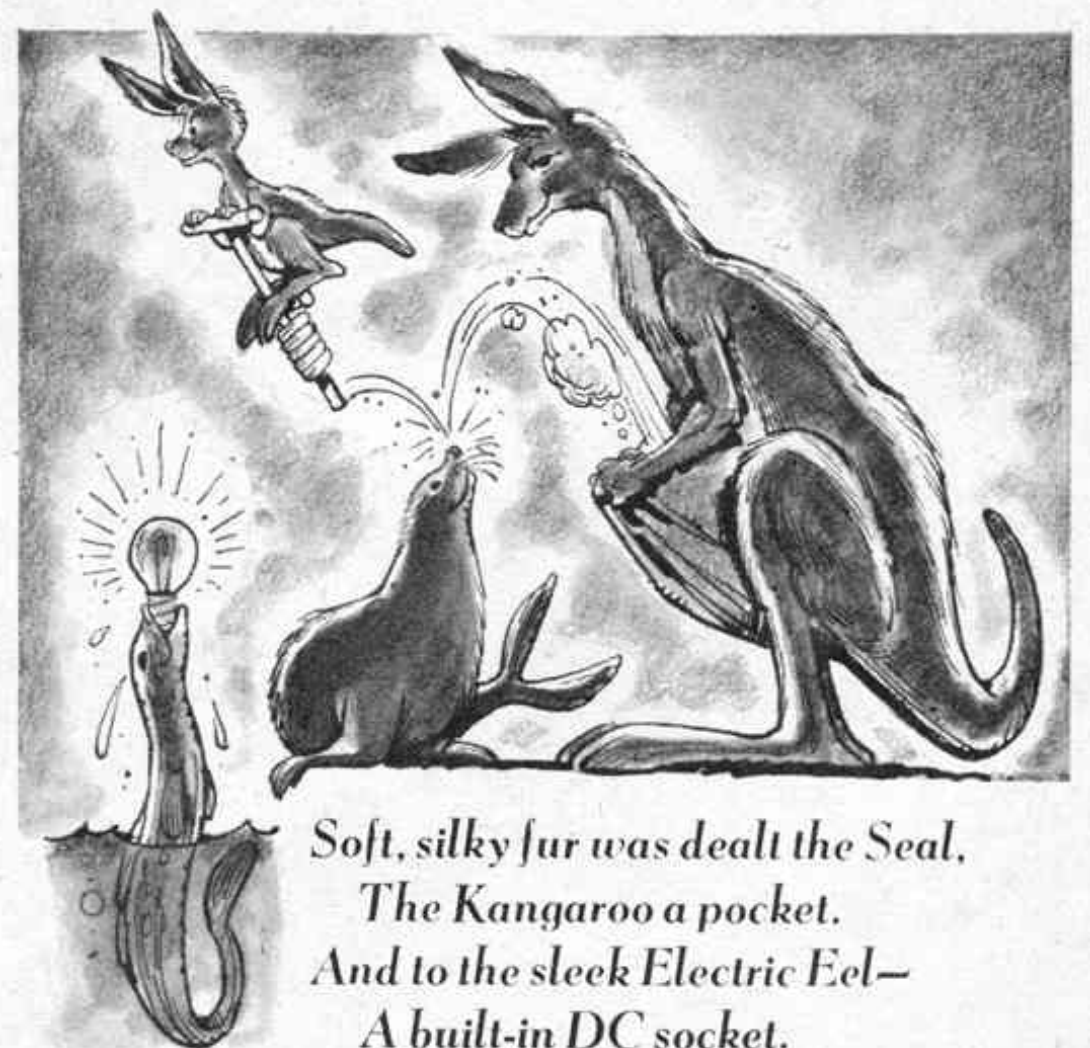

*When Nature made the Elephant,
A gift she did bequeath—
A trunk which hangs down from the front
And picks up things beneath.*

*The Whale was blessed with tail and fin
For swimming through the seas;
The Walrus with great folds of skin
Providing anti-freeze.*

*The Polar Bear was colored white;
The Skunk was filled with gases;
The Hawk was blessed with wondrous sight
Without the aid of glasses.*

*Soft, silky fur was dealt the Seal,
The Kangaroo a pocket.
And to the sleek Electric Eel—
A built-in DC socket.*

And Man, as anyone can see,
With his great gift is blessed:
A mind to think up ways that he
Can kill off all the rest.

MAD'S INGENIOUS PLAN FOR A MORE EFFICIENT GOVERNMENT

ARTIST: JACK DAVIS

WRITER: BARRY LIEBMANN

Candidates will not be allowed to receive campaign contributions from individuals or large corporations. However, they will be allowed to finance their campaigns by driving a cab or panhandling on the street.

Outside interests in large corporations, real estate ventures or the stock market will be forbidden to all politicians. However, they will be allowed to moonlight as garbage men, soda jerkers, gas station attendants or something equally suitable.

The President of the United States will receive a minimum wage ($2.65 an hour) and, at the end of his term, will be "tipped" by the American Public. Tips will not be allowed to exceed $5 per person (since that's too small to be considered a bribe).

The salaries of the President, his Cabinet members, and all members of Congress will not be raised in accordance with the rising cost of living, since it's their job to keep it down in the first place.

In order to prove their dedication to their job, all politicians will be forced to take a "vow of poverty" before entering office.

In order to speed up the Congress, a limit of 5,000 words will be placed on every speech, and a fine of $10 per additional word will be imposed on any Congressman who goes over this reasonable limit.

Because Congressmen have a tendency to fall asleep while on the job, a Surprise Quiz will be given at the end of each daily session of Congress, and the results published.

A fine of $50 (per word) will be charged to all candidates who use five-syllable words where a two-syllable word (or less) would do just as well.

Government agencies will no longer be allowed to spend tax dollars (for any reason whatsoever) without first having to ask permission from each and every taxpayer.

Any politician claiming to be "one of the common people" will be required to live among the "common people" in a slum neighborhood while serving his full term of office.

Expense allowances for Congressmen will not exceed $149.50 per week. (If they can't manage THEIR budget, why should they be allowed to manage OURS?)

After the election, all candidates (winners OR losers) will personally have to eat all their posters, handbills, and stickers that haven't been removed by mid-December.

All political candidates will be obliged to draw up a contract explaining (in outline form) what they plan to do if elected. And at the end of their terms, they will be paid a flat fee for every promise that wasn't broken.

To avoid further hanky-panky on Capital Hill, all new Secretaries will be chosen by a Committee of Congressional Wives.

Congressmen, Governors, Mayors and Supreme Court Judges will not be given bodyguards or Secret Servicemen since it's their job to keep the streets safe to begin with.

When they retire, all politicians will receive the same type of pension that is given to the average school teacher, coal miner, auto worker, clerk, etc.

In real life, most cops spend their time writing tickets, busting bad guys, cooping, saying "perpetrator," and griping about their pay. But on a weekly hit TV series, the cops are different. They spend their time doing un-cop-like things, like giving advice and counseling, and getting involved with the people they're supposed to be arresting, and their victims. No . . . we're not talking about "Adam-12"! But it's the latest clone from that old show! We're talking about those two California Highway Mounted Psychologist-Social workers . . . better known by their popular acronym as . . .

"CHiMPs"

Maybe you're being paranoid! It was probably just his radial tires!

THAT'S what was so suspicious! The whole truck blew up EXCEPT for his radial tires!

Paunch! Look out! It's a FIRE BOMB!

It looks more like somebody flipped his "BIC"!

In our non-violent time slot, THAT's a FIRE BOMB!

It was probably thrown by some poor dude trying to get rid of his pent-up guilt feelings!

He's also trying to get rid of my pent-up TRUCK!

Gee, are you carrying explosives? Not exactly! The load is—

... POPCORN ...

FOOM!

Sgt. Contraire ... this is Paunch! I want to report — uh — what's the code for when your bike is lost in a mountain of popcorn???

WHAT ... ?!?

Popcorn, Sarge! My bike is buried in POPCORN!!

How come this never happens to Starsky and Hutch?! Well—pour on some melted butter and salt, and keep eating until you find your bike!!

Barbie, tell us! When did these alleged "suspicious accidents" start happening to your Daddy's trucks?

They began shortly after my Daddy refused an offer to buy his company! I ... I think there's a connection! I mean, we've had 7 trucks destroyed, our house has burned down, and my Daddy's mysteriously disappeared!

Barbie, how long have you had this feeling that people were out to get you? You can talk to us! We're friends!

What's this? A traffic jam—or an encounter session?!? Let's get these cars moving!!

Hey, Harlequin! Why wouldn't you come out on the Freeway to repair my bike?

I don't make "Road Calls"! And don't come in here until you've scrubbed up!

Screw driver!

Ratchet wrench!

Wire cutter . . .

Can't you operate any faster?! I have to go to a meeting of the Junior CHIMPS Bike Club!

These things take time! Does anybody try to rush Dr. Welby?!?

First, I want to give you guys some important safety tips . . . !

Don't ride your bikes on the sidewalk!

And never, never ride anyone on your handle bars! It's very dangerous!

And now . . . if one of you will be kind enough to lend Officer Paunch your bike, he'll show you how to do a wheelie over six barrels while blindfolded, with his hands tied behind his back!

Hey . . . are you sure Evel Knievel started like this?!

Wayyyy to go, Paunch!

Y'know, Paunch, our bike program is really great for those kids! We start teaching them on their bicycles, and as they get older, we move them on to motor bikes!

Yeah . . . and when they're big enough, they get their own MOTORCYCLES . . . !

I've been thinking . . . ! Maybe we ought to start a Volley Ball team instead!!

VROOOOM!

Okay . . . okay . . . settle down! Here's today's briefing! Somebody's been stealing flowers from alongside the Freeways, and the Captain wants the perpetrator apprehended! Those flowers cost the taxpayers a lot of money!

Not HALF as much as it's gonna cost 'em for the gas we'll waste looking for this dude!

How many miles of Freeways would you say there are in this area . . . ?

There's gotta be THOUSANDS! Our chances of spotting that guy actually picking flowers are maybe one in a million!

So how come we find him in ONE PANEL!?!?

You're in a lot of trouble, kid! Stealing Government Property is a felony! You can pull some hard time for this!

But we can help you! Only you'll have to promise us: No more stealing! No more smoking dope! No more cutting school! And you also have to promise to join our Teenage CHIMPS Bike Club!

Man . . . like what ever happened to my right to remain silent . . . and all that jazz!?!?

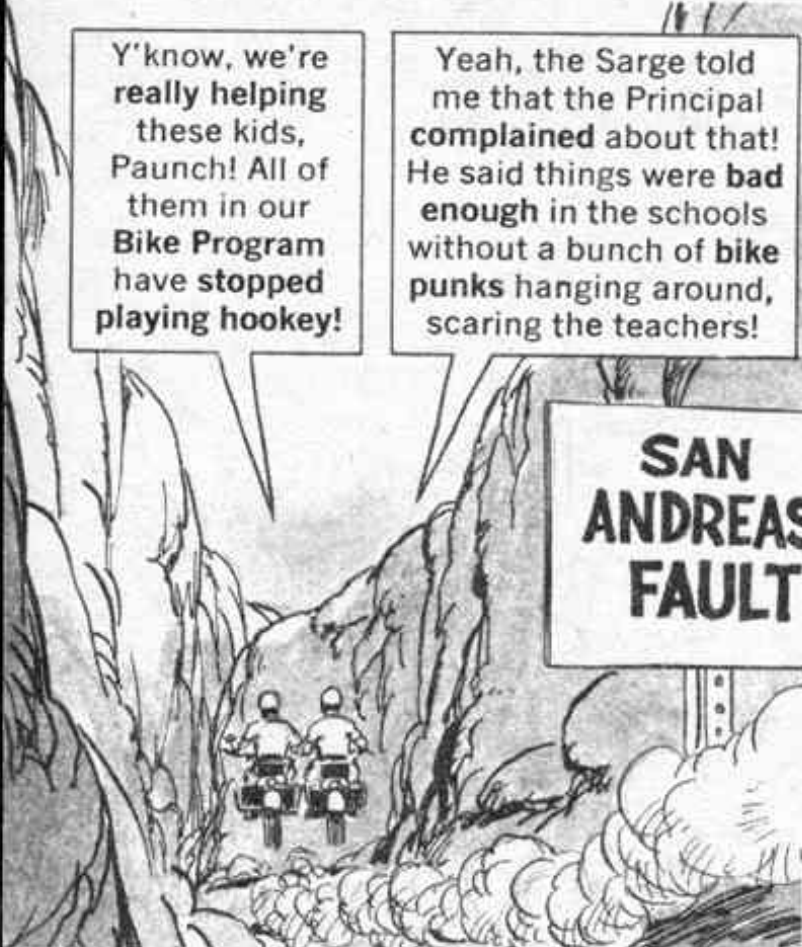

Okay, the obstacle course starts here! Get ready . . . go!!

BANG

SQUISH

Man . . . do me a favor and put me in the slammer!

Y'know, we're really helping these kids, Paunch! All of them in our Bike Program have stopped playing hookey!

Yeah, the Sarge told me that the Principal complained about that! He said things were bad enough in the schools without a bunch of bike punks hanging around, scaring the teachers!

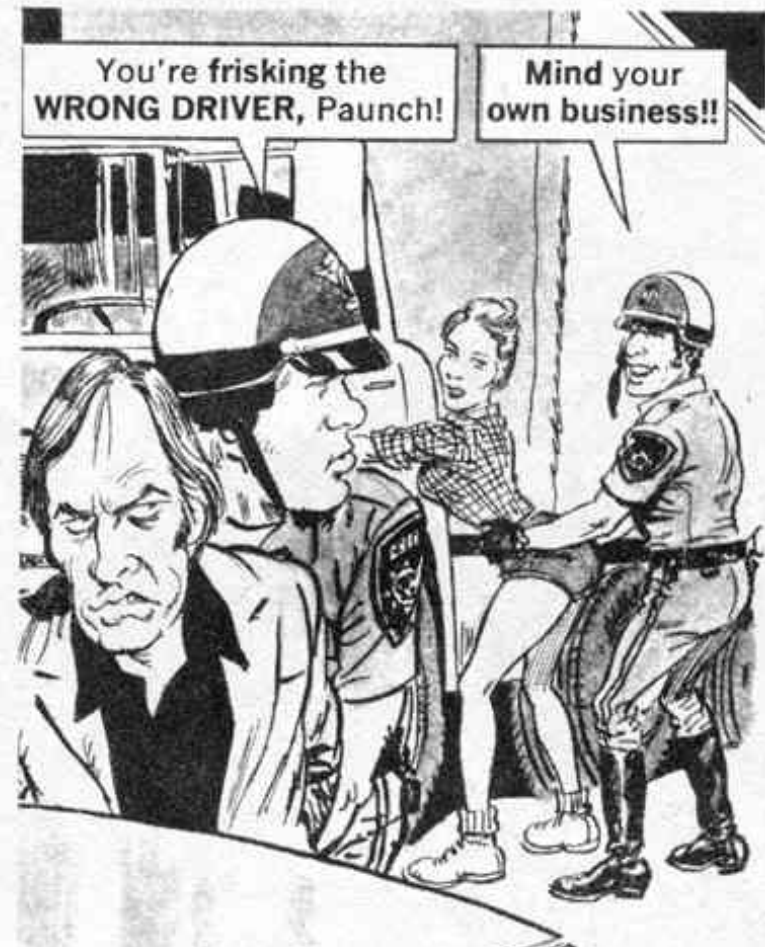

SAN ANDREAS FAULT

Look!! That CAR is trying to force that TRUCK off the road!

Hey, that's BARBIE's rig!! Let's go . . . !!

CRUNCH

You're frisking the WRONG DRIVER, Paunch!

Mind your own business!!

You're under arrest for attempted murder, reckless driving, and even worse, setting a bad safety example for our Bike Club members!

Jarn! Look what I found in this paper bag under the front seat!

I'll talk! I'll talk! I'll tell you everything! Only don't let anybody know what's in that paper bag!

Is it narcotics?

No... it's nothing but a peanut butter and jelly sandwich! So why all the fuss?

If the word ever got out that a Big Time Hit Man like me was brown bagging it, I'd be laughed out of the mob! It's this lousy inflation! Have you any idea what it costs to eat out these days?

I was hired by Mr. Bigg to scare her old man into selling his business! Once he sold, Mr. Bigg figured the other truckers'd sell and he'd control the industry!

Hey, that reminds me of a classic case history...

Was it Freud, ... or Dear Abby?

No, John Wayne ... and some cattle ranchers!

I guess you heard about it, Sarge? We busted the Hit Man who tried to knock off Barbie and her Old Man!

I didn't see you bring in any prisoner!

Oh... we didn't arrest him! Not after he promised to join our Senior CHIMPS Bike Program!

I stopped by to remind you you're taking me to the Trucker's Disco tonight, Paunch!

Allll right!! Say, how about getting dates for my buddies?

It's kinda short notice!

Just bring along some Truck Drivers like YOU... right guys???

RIGHHHHHT ON!!

Paunch... I know you like to show off by doing your John Travolta bit! But from now on...

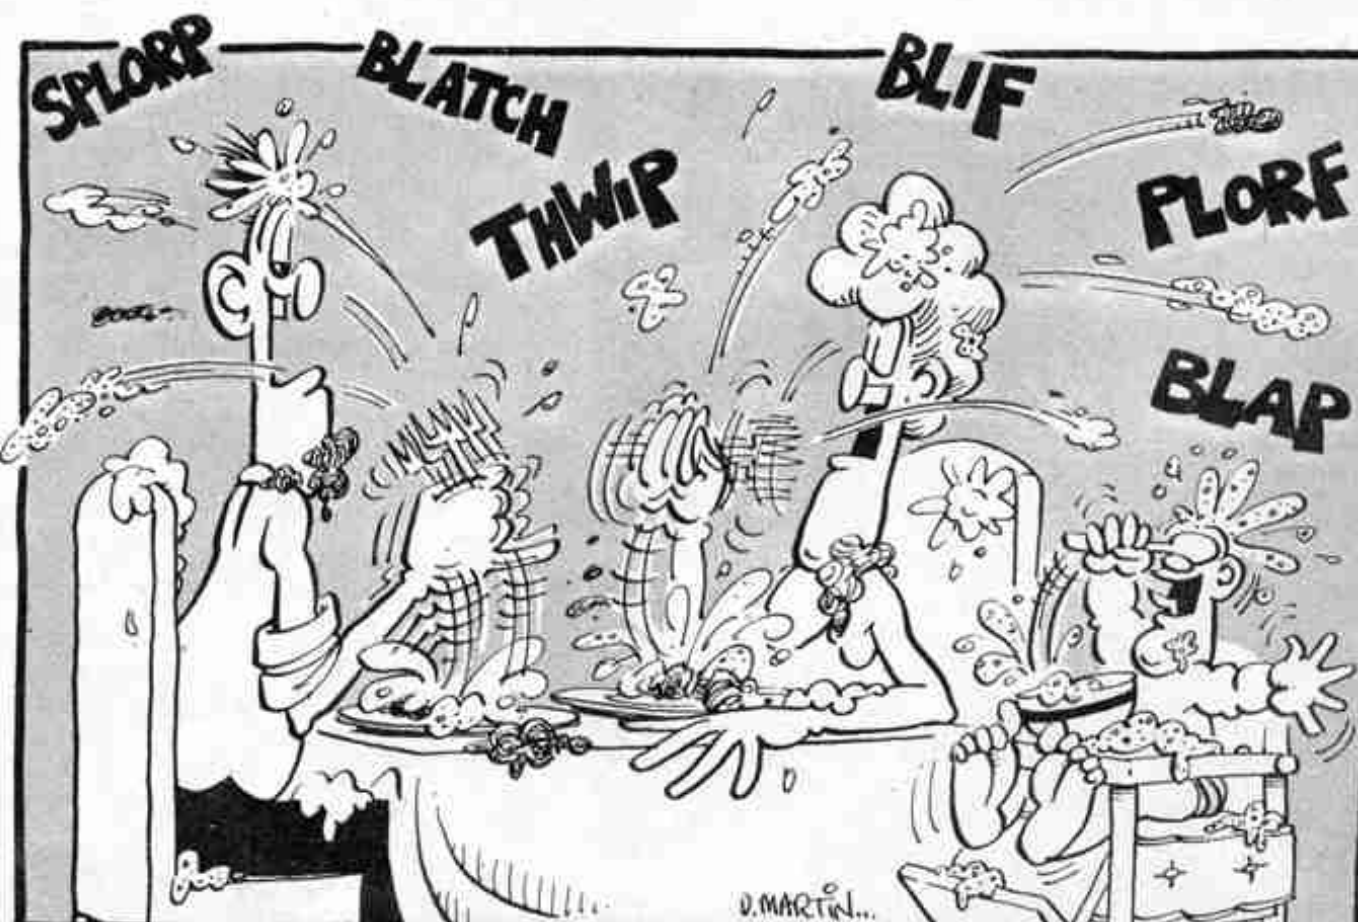

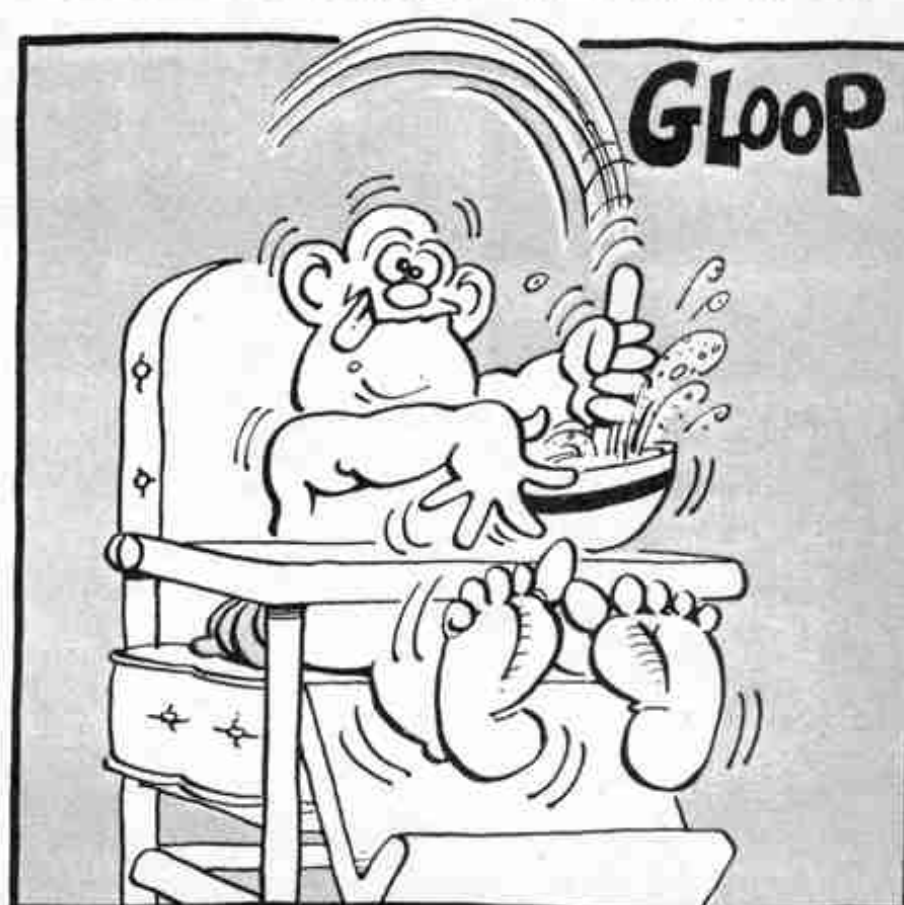

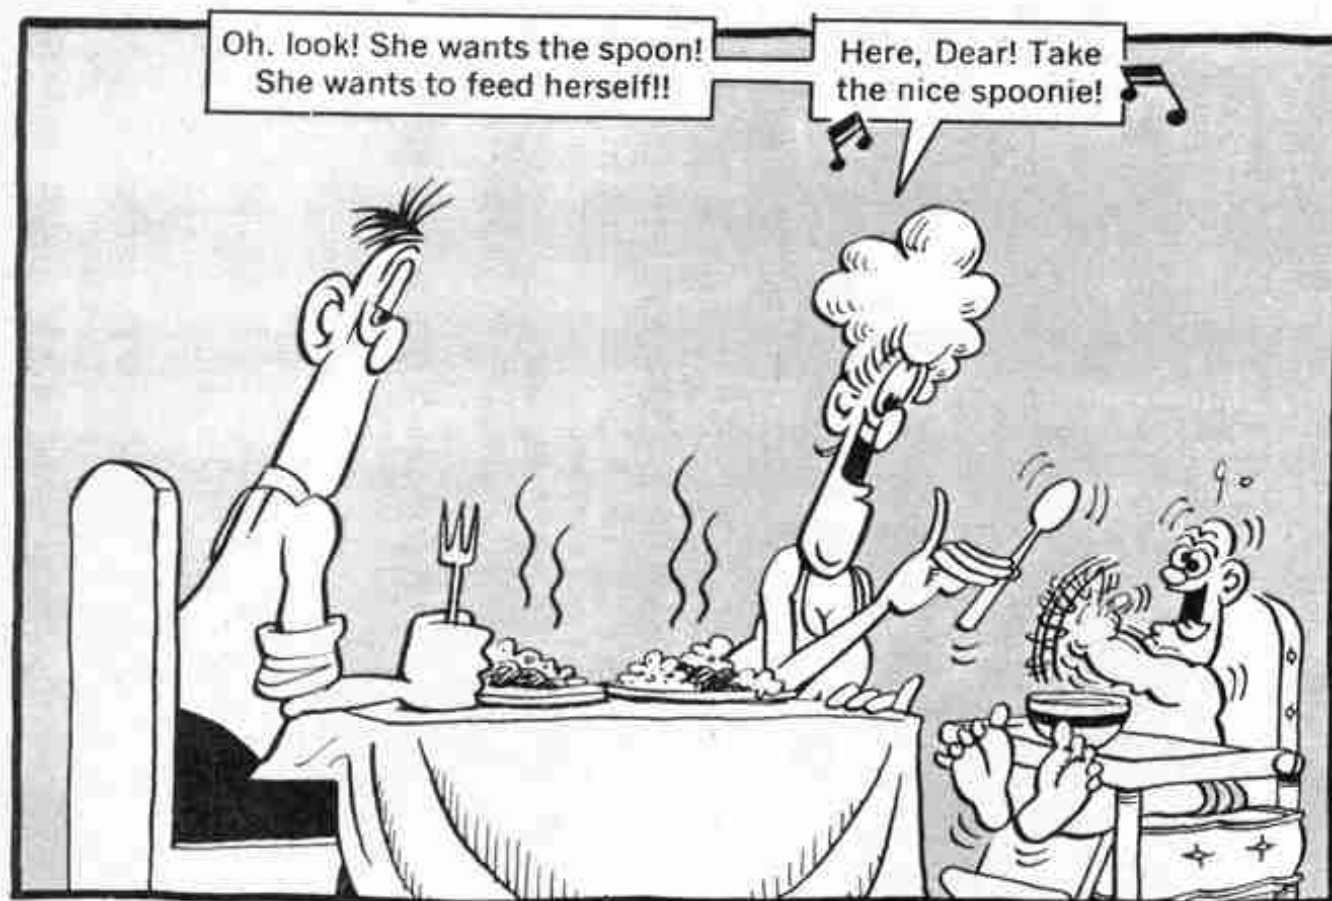

... we'll get our OWN dates!

I HATE touch dancing!!
